Acknowledgment

As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words, but to live by them.

This thesis would not have been possible without the guidance and help of several individuals, who in one way or the other contributed and extended their valuable support in this research. It is indeed my pleasure to convey my sincere gratitude & thanks to one and all. I acknowledge each of them with all earnestly.

First and foremost, praises and thanks to the God, the Almighty, for his showers of blessings throughout my research work to complete the research successfully. I also thank the Almighty for giving me the strength and patience to work through all these years so that today I can stand proudly with my head held high.

I am immensely pleased to place on record my profound gratitude and heartfelt thanks to my esteemed supervisor, Dr. Kamal Dev. Professor at Department of Biotechnology, for his invaluable guidance, tremendous support, constant encouragement and fruitful discussions for the successful completion of my research work. Under his guidance I successfully overcame many difficulties and learnt a lot. I deem it as my privilege to work under his able guidance. For all these, I sincerely thank him from bottom of my heart and will be truly indebted to him throughout my life time.

I am immensely thankful to Dr. Sunity Singh and Dr. Savita Jandaik for their constructive help, critical evaluations, suggestions and encouragement during the whole course of the work. Their invaluable guidance and professional approach were instrumental in the completion of the work.

It will be unkind of me if I don’t show my gratitude to all the venerable faculty members (Dr. D.R. Sharma, Dr. Anuradha Sourirajan, Dr. Astha Tripathi, Dr. Sourabh, Dr. Amit Seth and Dr. Pankaj Chauhan) from Shoolini University for helping me to achieve this goal. I am highly obliged to Dr. P.K. Khosla, Vice Chancellor, Shoolini University and Dr. S. Puri, Dean Academics, Shoolini University for their kind guidance, deep inspiration and co-operation.

I am immensely thankful to all teaching and non-teaching staff members of Shoolini University, for their kind co-operation and support to make my research work a successful task. I especially thank Dr. Rakesh Thakur (Lab assistant) for his kind support.

This research would not have been started without the immense help of Dr. Kim Lewis, Director, Northeastern University, Boston. I am thankful to him for providing the strains of Staphylococcus aureus.

Thanks seems a small word to express my feeling to my friends Jyoti Mehta, Neha Chauhan, Bindu Sharma, Kavita Bhatia, Jyoti Sharma for their moral support and making this project a wonderful experience.

I convey my heartful thanks from the core of my heart for my best buddies Savita Rana and Ankush Thakur for their encouragement and support which made this project a reality.

I express my Deepest Affection and thanks to my sisters Mamta, Preeti, Chandani, Radha, Sushma and my brothers Vikas, Gurubaksh, Manindra Mohan and my cute little angels Viranshi, Riona, Rianshi (niece).

I feel a deep sense of gratitude for my Mummy and Papa, who formed part of my vision and taught me good things that really matter in life. I salute them for the selfless love, care, pain and sacrifice they did to shape my life. Their patience and sacrifice will remain my inspiration throughout my life. I am very much grateful to them for their constant inspiration and encouragement. Without their help, I would not have been able to complete much of what I have done and become who I am.
My heartfelt regard goes to my mother in law, Sunita Thakur for her love and moral support.

I owe thanks to a very special person, my husband, Vishal for his continued and unfailing love, support and understanding during my pursuit of Ph.D degree that made the completion of thesis possible. He was always around at times I thought that it is impossible to continue, he helped me to keep things in perspective. I greatly value his contribution and deeply appreciate his belief in me. I consider myself the luckiest in the world to have such a lovely and caring family, standing beside me with their love and unconditional support.
I am thankful to my son Rudransh for giving me happiness during the last months of my studies.

Thanks to one and all
