

Acknowledgment¹

I would like to express my deepest gratitude and appreciation to the following persons who in one way or another have supported and contributed in making this study possible.

First and foremost Dr. Sanhita Athawale, Head of Department of Banking and Economics my guide and my mentor, for her constant support, advices, guidance, valuable comments, suggestions and provisions that benefitted very much in completion of this study. Her constant love, care, and encouragement completed this research work.

Dr. Jyoti Chandiramani, Dean of Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, for her time, suggestions, guidance and motivation throughout my research work.

I would express my respect to my directors in Symbiosis Pune and Noida Dr. Bhama Venkatramani and Dr. Srirang Altekar who provided an environment of research work.

I would like to express my gratitude and respect to my current Head in Centre for Regional Trade, IIFT Dr. Ram Upendra Das for shaping my thesis with his valuable inputs and comments. His guidance, motivation and his own papers on regional agreements helped me throughout my thesis completion.

I am also grateful to Dr. Sanjay Pohekar for spending his valuable time at the last moment for guiding me in the documentation of thesis and making my thesis worthwhile for reading.

Dr. Kriti Priya Gupta, Associate professor at SCMS-Noida and Mr. Prakash Singh for their constant support and time during my data analysis and interpretation, guiding me in research methodology and their constant guidance throughout in completion of my thesis.

I would like to extend my gratitude towards my friends Smita, Praveen, Shuchi, Preeti, and Sugandha for their constant support and motivation in completion of thesis.

To my husband Capt. Ambrish Singh who stood behind me always, his love, care and understanding throughout my research work and my little daughter, who constantly motivated me and supported me in my completion process. I would like to give my sincere gratitude to both side parents and family members for their love, encouragement and support always.

Last but not the least my God for his constant strength, wisdom, love, guidance, and inspiration and for giving immense blessings, without him this could not be possible.

¹ Swati Shukla