I begin with the name of Almighty Allah (S.W.T), the most beneficent and the most merciful, who showed me the path of righteousness and blessed me with strength to fulfil the requirements of this thesis.

I consider it my privilege to have completed this thesis under the noble guidance and supervision of Dr. Nazrin B. Laskar. She introduced me to the area of language contact. Her critical comments, insights and suggestions at every stage of the dissertation helped me in giving a shape to this thesis. It is no exaggeration to say without her generous sharing of insights, experiences and encouragement, this thesis could not have been in its present form. I am very grateful to her.

I also wish to express my sincere thanks and indebtedness to Prof. S. Intiaz Hasnain, Chairman, Department of Linguistics, AMU, for his healthy suggestions and assistance that helped me in completing the work.

I am also grateful to my teachers: Prof. A. R. Fatihi, Prof. Shabana Hameed, Prof. K. S. Mustafa, Masood Ali Beg Sir, Dr. Samina Surti, Dr. Aziz A. Khan, Dr. Sadia, Dr. M. J. Warsi and Dr Sabahuddin Ahmad from the Department of Linguistics, A.M.U. Aligarh for their motivation and concern throughout the work.

I wish to acknowledge my special thanks to Prof. Nazir Ahmad Dhar from the Department of Linguistics, University of Kashmir, who inspired me to work on Kohistani.

I am delighted to express my thanks to my teachers Dr. Adil Amin Kak, Dr. Aejaz Mohammed Sheikh, Dr. Musavir Ahmad, Dr. Sheeba Hasan, and Sajad Hussain Wani from the Department of Linguistics, University of Kashmir for their suggestions, guidance and co-operation during the course of this work.

I am grateful to the librarians of Maulana Azad Library (A.M.U., Aligarh) and Allama Iqbal Library (University of Kashmir), for their support and cooperation.

I am highly grateful to the non-teaching staff Najeeb Bhai, Anil Goel Sahab, Haseeb Bhai, Mohd Asif, Salim Bhai, Noor Banu Mam, Mumtaz Apa, Sajid Bhai and Vijay Bhai, Department of Linguistics, A.M.U. Aligarh, for their help.
I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to the members of the Kohistani community in Ganderbal, Kashmir on whose speech this thesis is based. I acknowledge my gratitude to Mr. Ghulam Sarwar Pakhtoon and his family for introducing me to the Kohistani community in Ganderbal District in Kashmir. Mr. Ghulam Sarwar Pakhtoon and his family helped me in every stage, from field-work to glossing the data. I owe them a lot.

I am highly thankful to my friends Numreen, Rashida, Sakeena, Irshad Ahmad and Saif for all their support, encouragement and understanding, and for being with me through thick and thin.

I feel quite blessed to acknowledge my loving husband Mohammad Iqbal Bhat and my lovely daughter Sara Iqbal Bhat for being a source of never ending strength, affection and inspiration.

Quite sincerely I would like to express my sincere thanks to my Parents (Rashid Ahmad Kuthoo and Shahida Sultan), Parents-in-law (Ghulam Mohammad Bhat and Shareefa Kapra), sisters (Ruhie Rashid, Dr. Arjumend Shaheen and Sana Rashid), brother (Mohammad Najeeb and Rayees Ahmad), brother-in-law (Manzoor Ahmad), nephews (Rasib Manzoor, Arham Manzoor), and all my paternal, maternal uncles, aunts and cousins for their blessings and moral support without which this work would have been impossible.

I sincerely acknowledge my thanks to University Grants Commission(UGC), New Delhi for the financial support they provided to me in the form Non-NET Fellowship.
