ACKNOWLEDGMENT

At the commencement I bow with respect to the Almighty God for the wisdom and perseverance that he has bestowed upon me during this thesis and indeed, throughout my life.

My deepest thanks goes to my family, especially to my parents Mr. Ashok Goswami (Father), Mrs. Nirmal Goswami (Mother) and Mr. Soran Giri Goswami (Grand Father), who are always there for me whenever I needed. Next to God, they were the source of love, support and patience. They encouraged and supported me whenever I was physically and mentally weary. No word will be suffice to express my gratitude to my revered parents for their sincere wishes, prayers and moral support that virtually enabled me to reach the present destination.

I am deeply obliged to my elder brother Mr. Amit Goswami, elder sister Mrs. Rashmi Goswami, brother-in-law Mr. Jitendra Goswami and my lovely nephew Mr. Anjaneya Goswami for always inspiring and cheering me during the difficult phase of my research work, contribution of my members during the research work is unmatched, unparalleled and indiscernible.

Thereafter, I would like to thank my Ph.D. Supervisor, Professor Shalini Nigam, Department of Management, Dayalabgh Educational Institute, Agra for her unwavering guidance and mentorship in nurturing my academic ability and professional development throughout my doctoral program. She has always been the perfect role model of an ideal scholar, who sets the highest professional and personal standards for herself and her students. She served as a constant source of inspiration, support, encouragement and intellectual stimulation. Her overall approach towards life gave me insights on how to be pragmatic and work in professional arena. I am very grateful for her patience, motivation, enthusiasm, and immense knowledge.

I owe a special debt of gratitude to Prof. Sanjeev Swami, Head, Department of Management, for endless mentoring, guidance and support. A hit of hat also goes to Prof. Shiv Kumar Sharma, Research Cordinator, Department of Management, Faculty of Social Sciences.
for helping me. Guidance, encouragement, criticism or just an open ear, they provided whenever I sought or needed any. There are no words to express how grateful I am for being their student.

I also have to give a special thanks to my seniors Mr. Kapil Harit & Mrs. Sukhmeet Kaur, my fellow colleagues Miss Poonam Mishra & Mrs. Shweta Khemani who have provided the valuable information and encouragement during the course of my research work.

I reckon it a great privilege to express my deepest sense of gratitude to Prof. Prem Kumar Kalra, Director, Dayalbagh Educational Institute Agra, for providing me an opportunity to embark on my research work.

Date: Neelni Giri Goswami
Research Scholar
Department of Management
Dayalbagh Educational Institute