"Guru Govind dou Khade, Kaake Laagoon Paye
Balihari Guru aapne, jin Govind diyo milaye"

The idea for doing a study on “Globalisation and Female Employment in India: An Inter-State Analysis” came out of a series of dialogues with my supervisor Dr. Kanwaljit Kaur Gill, Prof. of Economics, Punjabi University, Patiala. Her enthusiasm, inspiration and her great efforts to explain things clearly and simply helped me to make the tough work of writing a doctoral thesis into a pleasurable activity. Throughout my thesis writing period, she provided me encouragement, scholarly advice, invaluable discussion, guidance and ideas. I am short of words to express my profound sense of gratitude to her scholarly guidance and indefatigable purposive direction towards fruitful timely completion of this work.

I hardly offer my gratitude to THE ALMIGHTY, who gave me tremendous energy and patience to accomplish this great task.

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Sukhwinder Singh and Dr. Jaswinder Singh Brar from Center of Research in Economic Change, for timely support in the direction of my work. I thank to Prof. Inderjit Singh, Department of economics, Punjabi University, Patiala, for his help and constructive suggestions during my work.

My special thanks to Dr. G.S Bajwa, Former Director of I.A.S Coaching Center, Punjabi University, Patiala to motivate me to start the research work.
I am grateful to the staff of NSSO office Delhi, Ludhiana and Chandigarh for their congenial support in search out the essential data.

I have drawn upon the work from several publications. I whole-heartedly acknowledge my debt to the authors of these publications.

I am grateful to the staff of Main Library, Punjabi University, Patiala and Punjab University, Chandigarh for helping me in the collection of data and related literature.

I am extremely thankful to S. Swarajinder Singh, Center Head INC, (ICFAI) Patiala, to granted me timely leaves for research work during my job.

My special gratitude is devoted to my friends Tarun, Kulwinder, Angrez Singh Gill and Sonu Madan who supported me in numerous ways all the times.

I shall never be able to pay off the moral debt I owe to my family members for all-round help for the completion of this work.
