ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In the preparation of this doctoral dissertation, I am deeply indebted to my supervising teacher, Dr. N. Ramalingam, Senior Faculty, Centre for Taxation Studies, Government of Kerala, Thiruvananthapuram. From the origination of the idea of this investigation to its completion, his inspiration, guidance and help had been incessant and voluminous. I am extremely grateful to him for the assistance he has rendered to me.

Prof. Dr. M. K. Ramachandran Nair, Vice-Chancellor, Kerala University (formerly Director and Professor, Institute of Management in Kerala, Kerala University), was really inspiring through his valuable advice, suggestions and insistence. I express my deep sense of gratitude to my beloved teacher for all he has done to me.

Dr. B. Ramesh, Selection Grade Lecturer, Department of Commerce and Research Centre, Sree Sankara College, Kalady, inspite of his busy schedule, was always ready to help me. I acknowledge my sheer gratitude to him for his relentless assistance and scholarly suggestions.

I record my sincere thanks to Shri. V. Somasundaram IAS, the Commissioner of the Commercial Taxes Department of Government of Kerala and Shri. Anil Kumar, Registrar of Centre for Taxation Studies, Trivandrum for their support and the necessary permission, given to me for using the piles of government accounts, documents and records for the conduct of the study.

The Officials of the Finance, Accounts and Audit Departments of Government of Kerala were really co-operative and willing to provide me with information pertinent to the study. I acknowledge my special thanks to them.

I wish to record my sincere thanks to Prof. Ramachandran, Prof. Vishnu, Prof. A. Subramoniya Iyer and Prof. M. J. Usha Devi, the Principals of Sree Sankara College during the course of my research and Shri. Sreedharan Moothathu, Head of the Department of Commerce and all other teaching and non-teaching staff of the college for their co-operation.

The Academic and Non-academic Staff of The Centre for Taxation Studies Thiruvananthapuram had been very encouraging and helpful. I remember with thanks the services they have rendered to me.

I remain grateful to Prof. V. T. Kurian, Principal and Prof. V. J. Peter, Head of the Department of Commerce, Pavanatma College, Murickassery, Idukki for their whole hearted support and co-operation.

I would like to thank Dr. Biju M. G., for his scholarly deliberations and suggestions.

I remain thankful to Mahatma Gandhi University for providing me the facilities to carry out the research work.

Mr. Siby K. J., the systems operator, did a great job. I acknowledge my gratitude to him for the services.

Last, but not the least, I adoringly thank my Father, Mother, my wife Mrs. Sheena Johnson and my two kids George and Jacob, for their wholehearted love, emotional support, prayers, sacrifices and insistence throughout the course of this research.
