I wish to express my sincere thanks, deep sense of gratitude to my chief supervisor Dr. S. N. Dubey, Reader, Department of Psychology, K. S. Saket Post Graduate College for his keen interest, valuable suggestions and guidance throughout the course of this study. Mrs. S. N. Dubey and other family members have been too affectionate that I felt homely throughout my stay at Faizabad. It is beyond my capacity to express my deep sense of gratitude for my esteemed teacher and co-supervisor Dr. Krishna Dutt, Clinical Psychologist, Department of Psychiatry, K.G.M.C. under whom perfect guidance I had an opportunity to work. I am hearty thankful for his keen interest, inspiration, luminary guidance and indispensable help provided to me during the study period.

I take this privilege to record my sincere thanks to my husband Dr. Devendra Katiyar, M.D. whose ever preparedness to help and cooperate me to carry out my thesis with ease. I am very much thankful to my son also who adjusted and cooperated with my busy schedule. Without their energetic and reassuring support, the task of thesis completion would not have succeeded.

Words cannot express my indebtedness to my sister in law Ms. Vinodani Katiyar for her involvement, affection, encouragement and help in computer works.

I would like to convey a special thanks to Vinay Gupta, Brijesh Patel and Ujjwal Singh who helped me in various ways in carrying out literature and research work.
