ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I thank Dr. B.S. Nagarajan former Professor and Head, Department of Economics, Gandhigram Rural Institute for his earnest guidance till his tenure of office and placing me under the able guidance of his successor to continue the same.

My sincere thanks to my research supervisor Dr. A.Arokiasamy, Professor and Head, Department of Economics, Gandhigram Rural Institute, Gandhigram for his immense supervision and guidance.

I am much indebted to Dr. S.V. Hariharan, Professor of International Economics, School of Economics, Madurai Kamaraj University, Madurai, as External Member of the Doctoral Committee for helping me a lot in shaping this thesis.

My thanks goes to Sri. S. B. Pande, former Deputy Chief Executive Officer, Human Resource Development, Khadi and Village Industries Commission, Mumbai for extending all necessary help in accomplishing this work.

I thank the Chief Executive Officers and other officials of Tamil Nadu Khadi and Village Industries Board for providing information and data required for this work.
My sincere thanks to the authorities of Gandhi Ashram, Thiruchengodu for providing information required for this work.

I thank all officials in the Directorate of Economic Research and Bank Finance, Directorate of HMPI, KVIC, Mumbai and other officials of KVIC in Chennai and Bangalore for supplying relevant information related to this work.

I sincerely thank Dr.P.Arumukham, Professor and Head, Department of Rural Development, Or.N.TMHainayagam, Dean, Faculty of Rural Social Sciences, Professor and Head, Department of Rural Industries and Management and his colleagues, Dr.M.S.Prabakaran, Reader and Head of the Department of English Gandhigram Rural Institute, Gandhigram for their help in various stages of this research work.

I also thank my colleagues in Mumbai and my brothers-in-law Sri.V.Krishnasamy Bharathi, Dr.V.Mohanram, B.V.Sc, and officials of Gandhigram Charitable Trust for extending required help towards this work.

Last but not least, I extend my sincere gratitude to my beloved wife Smt.K.S.Sarojinidevi and my daughters S.Poornimadevi and S.Banurekha for their immense help and all moral supports extended by them in completing this thesis.

S.SOUNDAIYAN