ACKNOWLEDGMENT

With the grace and blessings of Almighty and the guidance and assistance of my teachers, colleagues and friends, I am able to complete my thesis.

I am extremely grateful to my supervisor, Dr. Daljit Singh, Professor of Law, presently Principal of Khalsa College, Amritsar, whose expertise and knowledge, added considerably to my doctoral experience. I appreciate his vast knowledge and skills in many areas and his able guidance in accomplishing the desired objectives and results.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude, especially to Dr. R.K. Marwaha, Head of the Department of Law, Regional Campus, Jalandhar, for encouraging me in the completion of my research work.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. A.A. Siddiqui, IPS, former DGP, Punjab and Dr. D.J. Singh, former Joint Director and Dean, Punjab Police Academy, Phillaur for their valuable inputs and advice which they provided to me as and when needed.

I am especially thankful to Professor Devender Singh, Associate Professor, Department of Political Science, Khalsa College, Amritsar for his valuable contribution in the completion of my research work. His guidance, personal experience, professional expertise and teaching proved valuable for the completion of this research work.

It is my utmost duty to thank the Chairman and Members of Punjab State Human Rights Commission, especially to Hon’ble Justice V.K.Khanna, Chairman, Shri R.L. Anand, Member as well as Shri V.P.Bhatnagar, IPS, former DGP of the Commission, for providing necessary guidance and help.

My sincere thanks are due to Ms. Sumbal Rizvi of UNHCR, New Delhi, Chief Constables of West Midlands Police, South Yorkshire Police and Leicestershire Police, U.K., for their kind help extended to me during my study for the present research work.

I would like to extend my sincere thanks to Shri Rajdeep Singh Gilll, former DGP, Punjab, Shri P.S.Gill, former DGP, Punjab and Shri Anil Kaushik the present DGP, Punjab for their whole-hearted cooperation.
I am also grateful to all the wings of Punjab Police, especially to Shri Hardeep Singh Dhillon, ADGP, Admn., Shri Jasminder Singh, ADGP, Information Technology and Communication, Shri R.P.Singh, ADGP, Traffic, Shri Mohammed Mustafa, ADGP, Human Rights and Internal Vigilance Cell, for helping me on a day to day basis in the completion of this research.

I want to express my thanks to the librarian of Punjab Police Academy, Shri Tarsem Lal and librarians of Army Institute of Law, Mohali, Department of Law, Punjab University, Chandigarh, Department of Law, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, Department of Law, Punjabi University, Patiala, Library of Indian Law Institute, New Delhi, Library of Bureau of Police Research and Development, New Delhi, National Crime Record Bureau as well as the library of Institute of Criminology and Forensic Science, New Delhi.

My sincere thanks are due to Shri R.P.Mittal, IPS, Commissioner of Police, Amritsar and his staff for helping me and providing assistance in the final stages of my thesis.

I would like to acknowledge my gratitude to Shri Varun K. Kaushal for extending remarkable computerizational/secretarial assistance.

I would like to express my gratitude to my wife Kavita Shekhar, daughter Garima Shekhar, son-in-law Praleen Chopra and son Yuvraj Shekhar, for their inspiration and their love and affection being patiently bearing with me.

Last, but not the least, I would like to express my sincere thanks to all friends and others who have been helpful to me in one way or the other.

(Chander Shekhar, IPS)
Former DGP, Punjab