ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to convey my heartfelt thanks and gratitude to my research supervisor Dr. R. Panneerselvam (Professor & Head, Department of Management Studies, School of Management, Pondicherry University), for his guidance, encouragement and patience throughout this research. His path breaking leadership qualities and great wisdom in the area of his expertise has influenced me and has had a great effect on my learning and research experience. Throughout my doctoral studies, he has provided me invaluable inputs, encouragement, sound advice, excellent teaching, inspiring ideas on the subjects and great insights into the areas of research. His invaluable guidance and intellectual mentorship during the period of the research have been instrumental in my development as a scholar and person as a whole. I am eternally grateful and indebted to him for the time and effort he has put forth during this research.

I would like to profusely thank my doctoral committee members Dr.R. Prabhakara Raya (Professor, School of Management, Pondicherry University) and Dr.S. Sudalaimauthu (Associate Professor, Department of Banking Technology, School of Management, Pondicherry University) for their motivation, advice, constructive and practical feedbacks on my research work. Their contribution to my research work has been immeasurable. The time, effort, and expertise that they provided have immensely improved the quality of my research.

I am deeply grateful to the authorities of the Pondicherry University specifically to the Registrar, Director-Research, the Dean-School of Management, the HOD-Department of Management Studies, the Controller of Examinations, Pondicherry University for providing me the necessary permissions and research facilities for executing my Ph.D work.

Senthilnathan (Assistant Professor), Department of Leather Design, National Institute of Fashion Technology, Chennai for their constant support and encouragement by sharing my workload in the department during this research.

I profusely thank M/S. Lindo Systems Inc., USA for their valuable technical support by providing me the free license of the extended package of the optimization modeling software versions LINGO 14 and LINGO 15 for completing this research work and also thank Mrs. Punithavathy Maharajan, Software Programmer, Chennai for her valuable assistance for this research.

I am also thankful to all my research scholar colleagues especially Mr. M. Pachayappan and Mr. Suresh Nandhakumar for sharing their ideas, providing a stimulating and a cohesive research environment, their support and suggestions which facilitated me with lots of insights into my research work. I convey my thanks to the faculty members of the Department of Management Studies for their kind support and suggestions during the presentations of this work in the department. I would like to extend my thanks to the administrative staff at the Department of Management Studies, for their kind help and assistance.

I am very grateful and always indebted to my parents [Mr. P. Muthusamy (late) and Mrs. M. Kalyani (late)] who created and brought up me to reach this level by sacrificing their life with unconditional love and affection. My hearty thanks to my wife
(Mrs. Sumathi Aravendan) for her unconditional love, tireless efforts, sacrifice and encouragement, and to our three children (A.S. Adithya, A.S. Aboorva and A.S. Abinandha) for their love and affection, understanding and support, without which I could not have completed this research on time. I am very grateful to my aunt (Mrs. Malarvizhi Sundaravel) for her love and affection, constant support and motivation and encouragement during my research period. I thank my sister (Mrs. Annakili Thirumurugan) for her love, affection, understanding, and support throughout this research.

Last but not the least, I would like to thank all my school and college teachers who sculpted me, all my students, relatives and friends who wished, prayed and supported me for successful completion of my Ph.D. research work.
