Respected Sir,

Giving reference of the telephonic conversation with you on 5th June, 2008 hereby I am responding with the details asked by you.

I will be thankful if you please render the basic information details of Late Padamshree Shankar Laxman. Any minute incident, event of Late Padamshree Shankar Laxman, his interview, his camps and at last his philosophy towards services and games. I also like to have information pertaining to Late Padamshree Shankar Laxman e.g. his joining to army, his posting, his promotions and role of army in Laxman's miraculous Olympic achievements. I will be delighted if you make available the different remarks aired by the then General’s or other Top Brass. It will be very useful if some army magazine can provide access to 'his time story' or his data. I will appreciate more, sir, if you give information about how many commendations or applauds he got for army, moreover his contemporary Commanding Officers view about him or some nickname given by them, how many army medals he received? I will be further grateful if you offer other necessary information guidance, suggestion or some insightful comment about my research study.

Thanks are due for offering constructive suggestions and invaluable support.

Yours faithfully
