ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the outset, I wish to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Ishrai K. Ganesh, The Honourable Chancellor, Vels University, for giving me an opportunity to pursue my research programme in his esteemed Institution.

I am also thankful to Vice-Chancellor, The Registrar and Controller of Examination, Vels University, for their constant encouragement and support.

I would also thank my guide Dr. G. Balakrishnan, M.A., M.Phil., Ph.D, Head, PG & Research Department of English, Vels University, Chennai. For his suggestions and guidance help me throughout the study. His painstaking guidance saw me through every stage of this thesis. Words are inadequate to express my deep sense of gratitude to him.

I am ever grateful to Mr. John Britto Assistant Professor of English, St. Joseph College, Trichy, for proof reading manuscript. I also thank to R. Vasuki and my colleagues for their encouragement in this study.

I would like to thank the librarians of SCELET Library, Madurai, Connemara Library, British Council Library and Vels University Library, Chennai, for their sustained help throughout the thesis.
My special thanks go to P.Chitra, Assistant Professor of English, Kongu Arts Science College, Coimbatore for her timely help to collect materials and her support to complete my thesis.

This thesis would not have seen the light of day without the practical help and patient understanding of my husband M.Rameshkumar and my daughter R.Tharani. I thank them for providing a pleasant atmosphere to complete my work.

My deepest thanks go to my family – my father K. Vijai Kumar, my mother V.Selvareka and my brother K.V.Sathyanarayana for their sacrifices in educating me. I truly believe that their hopes and prayers saw me through this journey. I thank my father-in-law, B.R.Murali Krishnan, my mother-in-law M.Saraswathi and other family members for their lovable support and timely advice.

Finally and most importantly, I humbly acknowledge the Almighty for standing by me in completing this arduous but delightful task.