APPENDIX -(ii)

BROAD BEHAVIOURAL CATEGORIES OF FUNDAMENTAL VALUES AGAINST THE INDIAN BACKGROUND

1. Honesty :
   (a) Impartial Behaviour
   (b) Unwilling to take advantage of others
   (c) The quality of opposed to lying
   (d) The quality of opposed to stealing
   (e) The quality of opposed to cheating

2. Cooperation :
   (a) Joint operation
   (b) To help others in need
   (c) To sympathize others
   (d) Working together to reach a common goal

3. Dutifulness :
   (a) Conduct owned to one's parents, older people
   (b) The habit of due performance of obligations to superior
   (c) The quality of some-one to perform all his duties with full responsibility
   (d) That which a person is bound by any moral obligation

4. Discipline :
   (a) The order maintained among pupils under control
   (b) Direct authoritative control of pupil behaviour through punishment
   (c) To deal with orderly manner

5. Sacrifice :
   Sacrifice connotes a thing which is claimed by more than one person of whom I am one of them, I giving up the claim of the thing or object in preference to others.
   (a) claiming nothing in return or
   (b) having no sorrow or grief for losing the thing or object.

viii