Acknowledgement

The drops of words are limited, but the ocean of infinite feelings of gratitude and appreciation stays deep in my heart, for all of those who proved to be lampposts during the journey of completion of this thesis.

First and foremost, I feel a deep sense of gratitude for my esteemed supervisor, Prof. (Mrs) Nandita Singh, Department of education, Panjab University Chandigarh, for having given me the opportunity to do the research work under her guidance. Her meticulous guidance, continuous support, fertile imagination, friendly temperament and constructive criticism made my research tenure, an enlightening experience. In fact, this study is the result of her scholarly and mature guidance. It is a great privilege to be her student. Thank you so much Ma’am.

I am short of words to record my sincere thanks and gratitude to Prof. Latika Sharma, Chairperson, Department of Education, Panjab University, Chandigarh for her encouragement and for providing appropriate administrative facilities during the course of the study.

I am extremely thankful to all the teachers in the Department especially Prof. Raj Kumari Gupta, Prof Latika, Prof. Vandana Mehra, Prof Sukhwant Bajwa, Prof Kirandeep Singh and Dr Kuldeep Kaur for their expert opinion, insightful suggestions and feedback whenever I approached them throughout the work. I heartily thank all the evaluators Dr Mandeep Singh, Prof Jitendra Mohan, Dr Reena, Dr Kuldeep Rana and Dr Anjali Puri who spared time from their busy schedule to evaluate my tools and helped me in improving them. Thanks are also due to the staff members of the Department of Education of Panjab university for all their assistance.

I gratefully acknowledge the valuable thoughts and research works of various researchers, authors and publishers whose researches and works have been quoted in this study. Apart from that, I wish to extend my thanks to the heads, staff and students of participated Government schools of Chandigarh for providing positive, stimulating and conducive environment during the data collection phase of the present investigation.

As I sit down to pen my thanks, the visage of my late Grand prents (papa ji and biji) flashes through my mind. I look heavenwards to salute them for being an excellent motivator. Their happiness would have known no bounds had they been alive to see this piece of research in the present shape.

Words can not explain how grateful I am to my father and Mother who stood by me in all my decisions and for all the tireless efforts and sacrifices that they have made for me. Through their constant encouragement, blessings and assurance, they made me believe in myself and my capability to accomplish this work which made this arduous task completed today. I doubt I will ever be able to convey my appreciation and regard fully, but I owe my eternal gratitude. I love you both.

Words fall short to express my gratitude to my loving brother Tarun whose love, encouragement and patience made this project possible even when I doubted it could. You truly are a blessing! Thanks are also due to my cousins- Atul, Gaurav, Saurabh, Vishu, Nitin, Karan Samriti, Akul and Rishu who always supported me in their own way. I am also grateful to my maternal grandparents who always have been inspirational and supportive.

A special note of thanks for my best friend Mandeep for being a true and great supporter. Your faith in me made this research endeavor possible. Thank you for sticking by my side, even when I was irritable and depressed. Your support and efforts are so appreciated. You have given me counsel and encouragement for many years, and I have always known that I could go to you when things seemed darkest.

This acknowledgement would remain incomplete without expressing my sincere feelings towards my friends especially Deepti Di, Swarnima Di, Sonika Di, Kanchan Di, Sonia di, Sanjeev, Harkirpal sir, Priyanka, Opinder, Mohinder, Parul, Kulwinder Sir and Sukhwinder mam who have been very supportive throughout my work. I have been truly fortunate to have such wonderful fellow researchers and friends. I look forward to continuing our relationship into the future.

I also owe a lot to many others who helped me directly or indirectly in completing this research work and who will remain unnamed, still I hope they will understand and accept my sincere thanks.

Finally I thank God for bestowing me with an opportunity of being a learner and giving me divine blessings and necessary potency to complete the present research work. Thank you for granting me the wisdom, health and strength to undertake this research and enabling me to complete it......Jai mata di.......
