I would like to express my special gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Atul Mishra for his consistent guidance and encouragement. His incisive feedback and conceptual inputs have been of great help. He has also played a significant role in inspiring and sustaining my love for international relations.

Special thanks are due to a number of other people: Dr. Saurabh Sharma and Mr. Vaibhav Abnave for offering extremely valuable ideas, Dr. Javid Ahmad Dar for his intellectual guidance, Master Mohammad Maqbool Wani, retired government teacher, and uncle Abdul Rehman Wani for their encouragement and support, and Mr. Nazir Ahmad Dar and Mrs. Gull Afroza for their love and remarkable cooperation.

I am deeply grateful to my fiancé Rukhsana Akhter, whose thoroughness in all things has contributed so much to the writing and researching of this project. She has provided invaluable support throughout the course.

It gives me immense pleasure to express sincere thank my friend Ms. Manidipa Mistri, whose intellectual and personal support was absolutely indispensible and far greater than she will ever realise.

I am also deeply grateful to my friends and teachers for their care and sympathy during prolonged periods of illnesses.

Finally, I owe a special gratitude to my family members, especially my parents, Abdul Gani Wani and Haleema Banoo, who have been a constant source of support and inspiration. A special note of thanks to them for their continuous professional and friendly approach.
