“For I know what my plans for you are,
Plans to save you and not to harm you,
Plans to give you a future and to give you hope.”
Jeremiah 29:11.

Thank you, my Lord, for giving me the strength with this bible verses whenever I was down. Thank you for the countless blessing You had given me. Thank you for the opportunity to do Ph.D.

I would like to thank my guide, and my mentor Dr.Jisha M.S. Professor, School of Biosciences, Mahatma Gandhi University for being there for me whenever I needed her. She instilled confidence in me to do my Ph.D. the best way I can. She pushed me hard so that I can have good publications. She is beyond doubt the best guide I can have. I thank you my dearest mam for being my constant support, for being adamant that I publish my research before I start my thesis. Because of you, I am confident I can achieve anything.

I would like to thank Dr. Keerthi T.R., Director, School of Biosciences for her support during my Ph.D. work. She was always there to help both academically and personally whenever I needed.

Special thanks to my dearest teachers of School of Biosciences, Dr. M.S. Latha, Dr. Jyothis Mathew, Dr. Radhakrishnan E. K., Dr.Jayachandran K., Dr. Linu Mathew, Dr. Prakashkumar B, Dr.Harikumaran Nair, Dr. J.G. Ray and Mrs. Reshmi S.S. for helping me with your constructive ideas.

I owe my special thanks to Dr. Annie Y. for helping me understand the basics of enzyme specific activity. I was always confused as to how to present my biocontrol enzyme results and because she spent an afternoon teaching me the basics I was able to represent my results correctly.

I am thankful to Mr. Bose, Mrs. Reji, and librarian Dr. Shiny for the timely help provided to me by the department. I also thank Mrs. Bindu, Mr. Shyju and all the Office staff for helping me.

I am grateful to Mr. Suresh Kumar, National Seeds Corporation, Palakkad Regional Office for providing me with Jyothi variety rice seeds free of cost. My heartfelt thanks to Dr. Sylaja S., and technical assistant Mrs. Nithya, Regional Agriculture Research Station, Kumarakom for helping me with my nutrient analysis study. I would also like to thank Dr. Shanas, Scientist, Rice Research Institute, Mancombu for providing me help during my greenhouse studies. I also thank, Dr. Sreekumar Nair, Principle Scientist, Central Tuber Research Institute for helping me understand the basics of statistical analysis.

I owe my gratitude to Mr. Ranjith, DBT MSUB, School of Biosciences for helping with my FT-IR analysis, Fluorescent microscopic studies and the use of microplate reader. I would also like to thank Mr. Munesh, School of Chemical Sciences, Mr. Anu and Mr. Arif, International and Inter-University Centre for Nanoscience and Nanotechnology, Dr. Santhoshkumar, School of Pure and Applied Physics and Mr. Abhijith, Institute for Integrated Programmes and Research in Basic Sciences for their help in doing SEM, TEM, AFM, XRD analysis of chitosan nanoparticles and for providing the lyophiliser. Special thanks to Mr. Sharath Chandran and Mr. Rafees, National Institute of Plant Science and Technology for their numerous help during the course of my Ph.D.
My dearest lab mates deserve special thanks since they were my support system throughout the four years of my Ph.D. They had my back whenever I was confused. They cheered for me whenever I got a publication acceptance. Thank you my dearest friends for being there for me and supporting me and for giving me the warmth of friendship.

Thank you, Dr. Elizabeth Mary John, Mrs. Smitha Vijayan, Mrs. Tijith K. George, Mrs. Aswani S. Mrs, Edna Mary Varghese and Ms. Karthika S. I would also like to thank my seniors Dr. Aju K Asok, Dr, Sharrel Rebello, Dr. Linu M Salim, Dr. Dhanya S and Dr. Vinod for their constant support and guidance. Special thanks to my dearest Dr. Shabanamol S. for helping me and providing me with all the help she can, above all thank you for being my big sister. I owe my deepest gratitude to Dr. Rishad K.S. for suggesting me Chitosan nanoparticles as a research topic and for all his help throughout my Ph.D.

I also thank my fellow researchers, Mr. Sunil, Mr. Nithin, Dr. Santhosh Kumar, Ms. Gishma, Mrs. Binu, Mrs. Glindya, Ms. Athira, Mrs. Haseena, Mr. Vijeesh, Mr. Vyshak, Mrs. Jisha, Mrs. Teena and Mr. Anoop for their countless help and support. Special thanks to Ms. Haritha and Dr. Surya for being my travel companions.

I am especially grateful to my fun group of MPhil buddies, Mrs. Bashi Babu, Mr. Rajesh K.R., Mrs. Ashitha A and Mrs. Honey Chandran C. for their love and care. They were always there for me and being with them was like being with family. Thank you all especially Bashi for being my home away from home.

Thank you to the MSc. Students especially, Mrs. Anju, Mrs. Liya C Kurian, Ms. Akhila, Ms. Prageetha, Ms. Athulya and Ms. Sonumol Varghese for their many bits of help.
My heartfelt gratitude to my dearest chechis in University, Mrs. Ambily, Mrs. Ditty, Mrs. Sreeranjini, Mrs. Sunitha, Mrs. Reshmi, Mrs. Sunanda and Mrs. Susan for their love and care.

I also thank Cherupushpam Digital Press, Kalamassery, for their boundless cooperation in the making of this thesis.

Special thanks to the family of my Jisha Miss, Mr. Shanavas, Mrs. Balkies Beevi for their valuable support and care.

I am at lost of words to thank my parents Mr. K.A. Kakkunny and Mrs. Treasa Philomna K.E. They made sure I got everything that I need and stood by me whenever I stumbled. They supported me in all my pursuits and helped me achieve my goals. I feel blessed to be their daughter. Thank you, God, for them because it is because of them that I am what I am today.

I also thank my in-laws Mr. V.X. Joseph and Mrs. Shirly Joseph for supporting me with my Ph.D. They were always there to help. Thank you for believing in me. Special thanks to my dearest brothers Mr. K. Ajay and Mr. Ajith Joseph and his wife Mrs. Anu Jacob.

I am very appreciative of all the members of Koilparambil and Venat families for their constant support and encouragement. Special thanks to Mr. Sajan M.F. for designing my thesis cover page.

Words are not enough to express my gratitude to my husband Mr. Deepak Joseph and my son Mstr. Joash Joseph Deepak for being there for me. They had to go through many inconveniences because of my research and never complained. Thank you, Deepak for being proud of me and making me feel special. Thank you, my dearest Jo, for loving me the way you do. I hope I can ever repay for the troubles they had to go through because of me and my research. I consider myself luckiest because of you both. Thank you, my Lord, for the gift of love and motherhood.

Thank you, God for the opportunity to do Ph.D. in this specific topic. This work helped me value nature and respect its miraculous ways of working. Special thanks to the many people in many countries whose works had helped me understand my research better. I thank the Research gate scientific community for always being there to help me.

Concluding I hope I have acknowledged almost everyone who has helped me with my Ph.D. I would like to thank each and everyone who has helped me throughout my work. Thank you, Jesus and Mother Mary for blessing me with all the people in my life.

Divya K.
