ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The path of the researcher is never a pleasant one, as it is perceived by majority of people who are ignorant of research, since it involves enormous amount of patience and hard work to accomplish the task. It also involves time constraint and requires sacrifice to smoothen the work.

I feel privileged to receive a second chance after M. Phil. to work under such a nice human being, my Mentor, Guru, Research Guide Dr. Javed H Khan. He is not merely my Guide but also a source of strength. I will forever remain highly indebted to him for whatever he did for me. His advanced knowledge, compassion, patience have always encouraged every researcher. I believe I have acquired a lot in terms of knowledge in research. Words will fall short in order to express my gratefulness for him. I am thankful to Dr. Hemang Desai, my co-guide from the bottom of my heart. I also extend my words of gratitude towards my Department faculties - Dr. R. K. Mandaliya, Head of the Department of English, Dr. Pranav Dave, Dr. Manish Solanki, and Dr. Piyush Raval for extending all the support.

I would like to thank real source of inspiration in my all endeavours of my life – my Parents – My Father Shri Rajendra Prasad Mehta for always being the backbone and special thanks to my mother – Late Alkaben Mehta whom I lost after few months of my commencement of research, nonetheless I am certain she is showering her love and blessings on me. My Brother – Varun Mehta, his wife Mayurika Mehta and my dear little champ – Panshul Mehta also deserve a special thanks for their kind concern and support.
I wish to thank Bhaikaka Library and its staff of librarians for their kind support in issuing books from time to time. I am also thankful to my colleagues Dr Bhautik Patel, the Principal, Mr Parimal Chavda for their words of encouragement and much needed leisure for my research work.

A Special thanks to my friend Dr Deep Trivedi for facilitating me in selection of the area of research. I am also grateful to friends like Hiten, Pratik, Kalpan, and Alpesh for their kind concern. I would like to thank fellow-researchers, friends Ms. Vaishali Biradar for responding to my queries just like a true friend, and Mr. Amit Kapoor deserves words of gratitude for having keen interest in facilitating the accomplishment of this research work.

Finally, I would like to express infinite gratitude to my wife Bhoomigna for her relentless moral and psychological support. I thank my little angel daughter – Anishka who arrived few months ago before the completion of my research work as a morale booster. She is the apple of our eyes and my good luck angel. At last but not the least, I am thankful to my Sasural family – Kirankumar Dave, Parthvini Dave, and Meghna Dave for their concern in my work. I am grateful to everyone who supported me to accomplish my journey of research smoothly.

Niravkumar Rajendraprasad Mehta