ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my deepest appreciation to my colleagues who have the attitude and the substance of a genius for suggesting the topic and guiding and helping me throughout. Without their guidance and persistent help this work would not have been possible.

I would like to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to Prof. S. A. Azmi, Department of Psychiatry, J N Medical College, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh who helped me in categorizing the depressed patients and allowed data collection. Without his support this work was not possible.

I would like to thank Prof. N D Gupta, Department Periodontics, Dr. Z A Dental College. Faculty of medicine, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, who was very enthusiastic about this study and always taking part in critical discussion during my work.

My sincere thanks are for my colleagues Dr. Vivek K, Sharma Associate professor, Dr Neha Agrawal, Associate professor, Dr Pramod Kumar, Assistant professor, Department of Periodontics and community Dentistry for always standing by my side whenever I needed their help.

I would fail in my responsibility if I don’t mention the commendable work done by Dr. Saif Khan, Assistant Professor, Dr Asaf Zia, Assistant Professor Department of Periodontics and Community Dentistry, Dr. Z A Dental College, for suggestions and help whenever required during this study, and also for their utmost help in statistical analysis.

I am specially thankful to Dr. Md. Kalim Ansari, Assistant Professor, Department of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery, for his help in every step in the preparation of this work. Without his support it was not possible to complete the task on time.
I am thankful to my postgraduate students, Dr Himanshu Trivedi, Dr. Mahira Kirmani for patient management. Without their support this work would have not been possible. My sincere thanks to Dr. Zareen Khan Post graduate student for helping me in designing the study and collecting the data.

I am highly thankful to supporting staff of Department of Periodontics and community Dentistry specially Mr. Tariq, Ms. Reena (staff Nurse), Mr Rafique, Mr. Nafees, Mr Faisal, Mr Irshad, and Mr Sufiyan for their utmost help in patient’s management.

However, the list of persons who supported in the work is too long and it is not possible to mention them all. I apologize for that and my thanks are to them for their whole hearted support, whose name could not be included here.

At last my thanks are for my husband Dr. Syed Sayeed Ahmed who always stood by me for this study with great interest and helped in compilation of the thesis. I also cannot forget mentioning the names of my loving daughters Sameena and Asra for their extreme love and support, without which it was not possible to complete the study.
