ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

With immense joy, I would like to express my deepest sense of gratitude and loving appreciation to my supervisor, Late Prof. Veena Saraf, then Head, Department of Library and Information science, NEHU for obtaining the necessary permission to do my research study under the Department of Library and Information Science. I take this opportunity to express my sincere and depth of gratitude to her, for her friendly but firm informal approach in guiding and motivating me with optimism during the period of my research work. It was due to the solid foundation laid by her that, I was able to carry on my research work, could complete my work successfully and to my utmost satisfaction.

I owe my heart felt gratitude and admiration to Dr. P. Hansing, my present supervisor for his generosity in accepting my request to guide me and for his optimistic approach, which had helped me to continue my work with zest in order to accomplish my work on time. I acknowledge his significant role in the completion of my study.

I am equally grateful to Prof. A.S. Chandel, my co-guide for meticulously going through my calligraphy, for correcting it, providing me with valuable suggestions and motivating me to work for the best. Working under Prof. A.S. Chandel is my great delight. My sincere thanks and appreciation is due to him. I am very grateful to Dr. N.P. Goel, Lecturer, department of Continuing Education and Prof. S. K Mishra, Department of Economics for sparing their valuable time in helping me with statistical computation, for their constant help and encouragement and their patience, readiness and cheerfulness whenever I approached them.

I am thankful to all the faculty members of the Department of Library and Information science, NEHU, Shillong. My sincere thanks Dr. M. Naga, Head of the Department, Mrs. Jackie Thaba, lecturer. I extend my sincere thanks to Rev. Fr. D. John Jayakumar, the then Director and Head of Department of Mass Media Department of St. Anthony’s College, Shillong, for his timely, valuable help and suggestion at the initial stage of my study and I am grateful to Rev. Fr. Yasoj, for motivating me to complete the study at the earliest and also I thank him sincerely for helping me to get the necessary materials for the present research work.

I am very thankful to Sir. S. Isaiah, teacher in St Mary’s higher secondary school for his continual encouragement to complete my work, for his suggestions and for his untiring assistance and my sincere thanks to Dr. A.B. Chakraborty, Head of the Department of Statistics, St. Anthony’s College for his suggestions and readiness to help me whenever I needed his help.

It would not been possible for me to reach the present study of academic achievements without the permission of the higher superiors of the congregation I owe my gratitude to them. I thank especially Sr. Mary Pius Syngkon, the campus Superior, for her constant support and encouragement and I thank my SMCTE colleagues for their interest, a special thanks to Mrs. Biju Borooah and Dr. Jaya Choudhury for their help.

I shall fail in my duty if I do not acknowledge my sisters and brothers for their supportive prayers and backing me to remain focused on my studies in spite of the hurdles that I had encountered during my study. I thank every one of them. I thank especially the respondents of the six villages of the sample study and the translators, who had come into my life as a fibre of my being during this study period, without their help and support this study, could not be completed.

Above all I thank My God and our Blessed mother for their Blessings and strength to carry out this study to its completion.
