Acknowledgements

In course of completion of this study I received maximum help and cooperation from various organizations and individuals. I shall be failing in my study, if I do not record my appreciation for them.

First of all my grateful thanks are due to Prof. P.K. Panigrahi (Head) Department of Political Science, Rajiv Gandhi University for his able guidance and supervision. He always acted as friend, philosopher and guide. His help, cooperation and guidance helped a lot in shaping the data and information in present form.

I owe my indebtedness to the faculty members of the Department of Political Science, Rajiv Gandhi University, for their scholarly comments and able guidance and suggestions whenever required. Any amount of thanks may prove inadequate to express my indebtedness to them as they have always blessed me in my academic endeavours.

I owe my gratitude to numerous local intellectuals, village elders, Panchayat members and Government officials for their cooperation during the field study. My thanks are due to Sri Imar Ete, Project Director Aalo (DRDA) and Sri Gumli Lollen Chairman Zila Prishad Member Aalo for their valuable suggestion and for providing necessary information. Besides, I am also indebted to some individuals like Dr. N. Bath, Associate Professor, Department of Political Science, RGU), Sri B.k. Bhuyan Principal (Rtd.) I am indeed grateful to the respondents, i.e. Panchayat leaders, government officials and beneficiaries for sharing their valuable time and responding to my questionnaire as also having a free and frank discussion on the problem.

The department of Panchayati Raj and Rural Development, Government of Arunachal Pradesh, Department of Public Relation & Information, Naharlagun, District Statistical Office, Aalo are natural claimants of my thanks for providing necessary data and information.

Without my wife Jumbi and sons Moji & Tumjom, this work would have been less rewarding; they are constant source of inspiration to me.

Finally, I admit that the limitations and errors in judgement in this work are entirely mine.
