Acknowledgement

Success is a journey, not a destination. – Ralph Arbitelle

Like a flower is not complete without its petals, I am also incomplete without few individuals involved in my journey towards this doctorate degree. With this thought in mind, I would like to acknowledge all the individuals and organizations who had been a part of my PhD tenure.

First and foremost, I would like to express my deepest appreciation to my supervisor, Dr M.A. Qadar Pasha who is a man of great intellect. I am extremely thankful to him for his constant guidance, inspiration, and motivation towards the path of success. He showed me the path and provided conditions necessary to attain the skills of a researcher. His constant encouragement, discussions, critical analysis have been a great source of strength throughout my doctoral work. Sir, you had been a great support all the time and always a patient listener. Sir, I am short of words to express my feelings, but I am highly grateful to you and despite of all ups and downs during this long span of more than 5 years, you stayed by my side and got things completed. Thank you so much.

I would like to thank my co-supervisor Dr Yogendra Singh, whose kind-hearted and constantly encouraging nature has helped me to achieve this success. Sir, your suggestions were invaluable during all my presentations. Sir, I could not have completed this journey without your support. It was always there in back of my mind that you are just behind me and won’t let me fall. Your constant support was indispensable in this journey. Thank you sir, for everything.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to Dr Ritushree Kukreти, Dr Neeru Saini, Dr Santosh Pasha. Dr Anurag Aggarwal, and Dr Naveen Arora, for their constant guidance, help, support, concern, and encouragement.

I am highly thankful to Dr Rajesh S. Gokhale, Director, CSIR-IGIB and Dr Balram Ghosh. Scientist-H, CSIR-IGIB for providing the necessary support and facilities at the institute.

I would like to extend a word of thanks to the people in PME division at CSIR-IGIB who had been of immense help during my PhD. Thank you Dr Girija Nair, Mr. B.R. Gupta and Mr. Vishal Goel.

I am also grateful to the all the administrative and technical staff members of CSIR-IGIB

I would like to thank our collaborator Dr Ghulam Mohammad and Dr Tsering Norboo, SNM Hospital, Leh, Ladakh, India for their immense help in collecting precious samples for this study. I would not have been able to carry out this work without their help. I would like to extend special vote of thanks to all the volunteers and hospital staff members.

A special vote of thanks is due for Mr. R.B. Ram, Senior technical officer, for his help, technical support, encouragement and personal attention.

I wish to thank Dr. Binuja Varma, Scientist, CSIR-IGIB. Prof. K Ravi. Scientist, VP Chest Institute and his student Dr. Ravi Sharma, Dr. Ashok Mukherjee, Consultant pathologist, Dr. S.K. Jain, Scientist, Jamia Hamdard and his student Mr. Naveen for their kind and timely support.

I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to my colleagues at CSIR-IGIB. First of all, Zahra ma’am. There are no words to describe how much I am thankful to you. You are my friend for life. Your patience while listening to me, your help with all my professional and personal work was indispensable. My neighbor I wish you great achievements. Manjari, came almost 1½ yrs after me and her calm and composed nature just grew over me. You are a very nice, lovely friend and a really good human being. Thank you Samantha, you had been a very supportive colleague and dear friend. Your polite, prim n proper attitude, initiative taking attitude towards things are rightly commendable. Thank you both of you for all your help and support during my tenure. I wish both sam and manj a very good luck for all your future endeavors. I will miss our tea making activity. Aastha thanks a lot for all your support and care throughout my tenure. You are a very good colleague to work with. Perwez, thank you for all support and concern. Thank you Rahul Sir, for your constant encouragement, care and support. I wish all three of you a great life ahead. Sangeeta, my trainee you were a very good learner. Thank you, you really made things move fast. You were really good. Thank you, Remya, you had been a great support. You had been really kind. Shahila and I joined the institute on the same day and we became friends right from that day. Shahila, thank you for all your support. You patiently heard all my vows and other things!!! Thank you. I wish you achieve great heights.

I would also like to thank Rakhshinda, Kavita, Dhanapal, Rickesh, Preeti, Annu, my teachers (from nursery till post-graduation), graduation/post-graduation/phd batchmates. This journey would not had been completed without their support.
I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to Dr. Ramkrashan Kasera. I could not have completed this journey without you. Thanks for all your unconditional affection, support and care. Your guidance in professional and personal matters was indispensable. I have got a friend for life in you.

I am short of words to express my deepest sense of gratitude towards my family. Mumma, daddy, honey, minal this could not had been possible without you people. DD you are my best friend. I am lucky to have blessings of my parents, love and support of my siblings with me, in each endeavour of mine. Mumma, this journey could not have been completed without you by my side. Their unshakeable belief and faith in me has provided immense strength to achieve and face any situation in my life. They are my life support systems constantly infusing in me a force to move ahead. I thank my family for all the support and patience and bearing with my erratic lifestyle and schedule during the course of Ph.D.

I would also like to acknowledge greatly the financial assistance provided by CSIR and UGC during the PhD work. Last but certainly not the least, I wish to thank Almighty for bringing this day in my life. I have always felt that 'God is near'.

Priyanka Pandey