ACKNOWLEDGEMENT
I would like to thank God almighty and Mother Mary for helping me to complete this journey and all the people who have supported me immensely.
I am ever thankful to Dr (Fr) Thomas. C. Mathew, vice- chancellor, Dr (Fr) Abraham V. M, pro-vice-chancellor, Dr Anil Joseph Pinto, registrar and Dr Tony Sam George, Additional Director, Centre for Research, for their constant encouragement.
I would like to thank my research supervisor Dr Jain Mathew for his timely motivation and guidance in all my endeavours. He was a fatherly figure who has always guided and has done hand holding when there were so many pitfalls on this journey. He has not only guided me in terms of a scholar but also equipped me to be a better researcher. He has moulded me holistically from my presentation skills to writing skills. I thank him for his patience and his humble guidance. I am always indebted to him.
I also place on record my sincere gratitude to Dr Tomy K. Kallarkal and also am extremely indebted to my mentor Dr Theresa Nithila Vincent for their continuous encouragement, guidance, and support in all phases of my research.
I also would like to thank my statistician Mr Jaysimha for his thought-provoking questions which helped me strengthen my research and Dr Uma.V who gave guidance on the right and wrong of the research.
I would like to thank my dear friends Mr Laltendu Mishra, Ms Lakshmi booshetty, Ms Ginu George, Dr Leena Fukey, Dr Suita Panicker who have helped me throughout my journey by their expert knowledge in research and friendly advice.
I am also thankful to the centre for research and the committee of Christ University for all the support given to me.
I specially place on record my loving students of Department of Commerce who have helped me in my data collection process and also Mr Sabari who has helped me in the formatting process.
Most importantly, none of this would have been possible without the love and patience of my family especially my parents Mr T.L Thomas and Mrs Lucy Thomas, my mother in law Mrs Brigit Alfred, my loving husband Mr Vijay Alfred and my little daughter Miss Rachel Vijay. I thank all from the bottom of my heart for the unconditional support and patience. Their constant source of love and prayers have strengthened me in all these years and helped me keep going and complete this journey successfully.
