CHAPTER 8

FUTURE ENHANCEMENTS

The Proposed work can be extended in future by improving the computational capabilities of Private Key Generator. The method for identification of malicious nodes in MANET can be enhanced by designing a framework for malicious node identification before communication is initiated.

In future 2ACK method can also be enhanced that reduces the total number of messages generated by the network. The routing process can be still enhanced in dynamic routing methods as the time taken for route identification may be reduced.