ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I express my heartfelt and sincere gratitude to my Ph. D research supervisor Professor Moses Mark Naga, to whom I am wholeheartedly indebted for his constant guidance throughout the entire course of my research. His moral and spiritual guidance, inspiration, prayers, encouragement and support has been the prime motivating factor in helping me complete my studies in the North-Eastern Hill University.

I would like to extend my sincere thanks to Dr. Icylda Majaw, the then University Librarian, North-Eastern Hill University, Shillong, and Dr. F.R. Sumer, Acting University Librarian, NEHU, Central Library, Shillong, for the encouragement and for giving me the opportunity to pursue this research work in the advancement of my studies.

I am also very grateful and indebted to all the Faculty Members, the Office Staffs of the Department of Library and Information Science, North-Eastern Hill University, Shillong, Meghalaya for their encouragements, support and helping hands throughout the course of my studies.

Special thanks goes to the Headman of Mawtneng, Mr. Augustine Balieh and Headman of Umkei, Mr. J. Lyngdoh, for allowing me to conduct this research in their village and also for providing correct information about various schemes and programmes available in their villages. I am also grateful to my cousin brother Strong Balieh and my friend as well as my colleague (L) Tolmon Passah, for accompanying and assisting me during several rounds of visit to the villages for data collection. My thanks also goes to the Block Development Officer, Mylliem Block, Umsning Block, as well as their staff for their kind assistance in accessing various sources of information during the course of study.

I am especially thankful to my wife, my four children and other family members for their support, patience, understanding, encouragement and prayers without which I would not have had the enthusiasm in completing this work.
Above all, I praise and thank God for granting me good health, spiritual and physical strength and for meeting all my needs during this study and hence enabling me to bring this research work to its completion.
