Acknowledgement

In the process of completing the thesis, there had been people who inspired, encouraged, and shared the agony. I am indebted to everyone for supporting me in this long process of writing my thesis.

In this endeavour, I am fortunate to be guided by Dr. Aparna Mathur, who gave me the right kind of impetus that enabled me to evolve as a researcher. I am much indebted to her for her consistent academic support and for the constant faith she kept in my potential. I wish to acknowledge with a deep sense of gratitude that I imbibed the spirit of true critical thinking from my supervisor and that without her dedicated guidance and encouragement, I would not have completed the work.

I wish to record my sincere thanks to Prof. Mignonette Momin and Prof. Manorama Sharma for their useful insights, suggestions and goodwill expressed during the course of my research work. I sincerely thank Prof. A. K. Thakur, Head of the Department, for his suggestions and constant support. I am equally thankful to the other faculty members of the department and the office staff for their help and encouragement.

For the valuable professional assistance at the various libraries visited I am grateful to the ASI Library, New Delhi; Central Library of JNU, New Delhi; Department Special Assistance Library of the CHS, JNU; ICHR Library, New Delhi; National Museum Library, New Delhi; National Library, Kolkata; and Central Library of North-Eastern Hill University, Meghalaya for their support and help in locating and lending books.

There is also effective contribution of the financial support I received from the Doctoral Fellowship of ICSSR, New Delhi, as well as Travel Grant and Contingency Grant from ICSSR, NERC, Shillong in the completion of the thesis.

I would like to mention the everlasting support of my friends in NEHU whose contribution and encouragement has been immense and which helped me survive through the years of my research. My friends outside NEHU has equally been of great help and support in the process of my work.

I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude to my family who believed in me and waited patiently till I finished my work. It will be too little to say thanks to my parents. The constant and unconditional support and concern of my mother, Mrs. Maikan Devi, and father, Mr. Bhava Kt. Nath, made the completion of the thesis possible. This work is dedicated to my parents. Likewise, my brother, Dr. Dipankar Nath, and sister-in-law, Dr. Kiran Lakhchaura, were always encouraging and helped me in all possible ways.

I thank everyone for their patience and support.
