I express my sincere gratitude and indebtedness to my Supervisor Prof. Anupam Dikshit, FRSA, Biological Product Lab, Department of Botany, University of Allahabad for giving me a chance to learn about lichens and prove my potential in the field of Lichenology. The word seems to be limiting in expressing my profound sense of perceptiveness for my all-in-one mentor, guide and guardian, my respected Gurujee.

It will be an injustice to the science of Lichenology, if I don't pay my humble regards to the Father of the Indian Lichenology-Late Dr. D. D. Awasthi; whose blessings and guiding have proved to be path-breaking step in proceeding further my study. I would like to pay my heartiest wishes and regards to Dr. Dalip Kumar Upadhy, Principal Scientist- G. National Botanical Research Institute (NBRI), Lucknow, U. P.; not only for helping to learn the identification of the lichens and giving access to some of the valuable literatures of lichen taxonomy and bioprospection; but also for throughout guidance and spontaneous helps and suggestion, whenever required which proved to be crucial which proved to be crucial in giving final shape to my D. Phil. work. I am also thankful to Dr. Sanjeev Nagark, Dr. Rajesh Bajpai, Dr. Roshni Khare, Dr. Gaurav Mishra and Dr. G. R. Logesh.

I am extremely thankful to Prof. (Dr.) A.R Bajaj, Ex- Head, Department of Dermatology and Venereal Diseases, M.L.N. Medical College, Allahabad, India for his invaluable help and fruitful discussion regarding treatment of Malassezia and providing sample of syntheses for in-vitro testing in Biological Product lab.

I am grateful to Prof Vijay Krishna Head, Department of Botany, University of Allahabad, for his constant support and encouragement in the form of lab facilities.

I am indebted to Prof. Dhamraj Misra, Ex- Head, Department of Botany, University of Allahabad, for his unvarying support, encouragement and moral boost up during the ups and downs that came by during my stay in the department.

For the unanimous help, care, constant boost-ups and spiritual lessons, I shall always be gratifying Prof. D. N. Shukla, Ex- Head, Department of Botany, University of Allahabad. For all his immemorial help and care, I shall be obligated forever.

I am also indebted to Dr. G. N. Hariahran, Scientist, M. S. Swaminathan Research Foundation (MSSRF), Chennai, Tamil Nadu, who in the very initial phase of my work gave a chance to learn the basics of the lichen bioprospection and culturing. Also, I am indebted to Dr. Valarmathi, Lecturer at Madurai and Dr. Trupti Mohapatra, for conceptualizing the basic concepts of the lichen bioprospection and techniques of culture. I am also thankful to Mutthu and Rathir for their cooperation during the Workshop at MSSRF.

I would like to pay my humble regards to Dr. B. C. Behera, Principal Scientist, Mycology Division, Agharkar Research Institute, Pune for his constant support during my work for providing necessary literatures, reviewing my writing work and also guiding me throughout in understanding the lichen culture. I am also thankful to Bapi and Neeraj for their help and support during the stay at Agharkar Research Institute, Pune.

I must appreciate the help and support extended by Dr. Anees Ahmad Ansari (Ex-Director, BSI, Allahabad), Dr. K. P. Singh, Dr. G. P. Sinha and scholar Siljoseph and Jitendra Verma and especially Dr. Arjun Tiwari during the Botanical Excursion to Chitrakoot and Badrinath.

I must appreciate to my dear friend Zeeshan-ur-Rehman and his Supervisor Dr. Ved Pal Singh, Department of Botany, University of Delhi, for extending a hand of support, especially for bioinformatical tools and phylogenetic studies; whenever required. I am also thankful to Prof. V.C. Pandey, University of Allahabad for critical reviewing of my research papers. I also appreciate Dr. T. N. Lakhmanpal, Dr. T. N. Dhole (SGPRL, Lucknow), Dr. U. C. Lavania, FRSA (Scientist G, CIMRIP), Dr. Om Prakash (CIMRIP), Dr. M.G.H. Zaidi (for providing GNPs) and many others for various helpful guidance and suggestions. Thanks are also due to Dr. S. K. Srivastava (Director, BSI, NRC, Dehradun), Dr. Abhita Nand Shukla, Mr. Virarendra Madhukar (Botanical Assistant, BSI, NRC, Dehradun), Vikas and Luvkush (Project Fellow, BSI, Dehradun).
I would also like to appreciate the constant support, guidance, suggestions, care and cooperation of all teachers for their invaluable help, moral care and support which was crucial in leading forward. Especially I am thankful to the motivation and support of Prof. D. K. Chauhan, Dr. Girijesh Kumar (Naithani Cytology Lab), Dr. H. K. Kehri (Sadasivan Mycology Lab.) and Dr. N. B. Singh (Wahal Plant Physiology Lab.) throughout my studies from Post-graduation to till D. Phil completion, which never let me down.

I am thankful to the staff of the Department, Sri C. P. Joshi, Sri M. M. Bhatt, Sri Jagdish Joshi, Sri H. C. Joshi, Sri Bishen Singh, Sri Rajesh Kaur, Sri B.K. Tiwari, Sri Santosh Mishra, Sri Santosh Yadav, Sri Radhey Shyam Yadav, Gani Dhai, Ashok Maurya, Virendra, Shiva Shankar, Mangal, Jitendar and Ajay for extended help and cooperation.

Technical support, thorough initial training in lab, vigilance and revisionary corrections came as a welcome deed from Dr. Rohit Kumar Mishra, DST- Scientist, BPL, Department of Botany, A. U. and Dr. Vani Mishra, D. S. Kothari Post- Doctoral Research Fellow, Nanotechnology Application Centre, A. U. My sincere thanks are due to my senior Dr. Amit Kumar Tiwari, Lecturer, Bundelkhand University and Dr. Swadheesh Kumar, Asst. Prof. HJMP, Mizoram Central University, Mizawl for their inestimable help rendered in giving basic training in Lab and all the love, care and affection for which I shall be indebted for life.

I extend my thanks to other seniors in the Biological Product Lab, Dr. Kumar Pankaj Pandey, Dr. Ravindra Pandey, Dr. Piyush Mishra, Dr. Bharat Mishra, Dr. Atshan Kamran for their moral support during my research work. I am also thankful to Prof. A.C. Shukla, Head HJMP, Mizoram University, Dr. S. K. Shabi, Asst. Prof., Guru Ghasi Das University, Bilaspur; Dr. Ramesh Singh and Dr. R. C. Mishra for their encouragement.

My sincere thanks are due to my lab mates Mr. Rajesh Kumar, JRF, Mr. Shashi Kant Shukla, Mr. Ashutosh Pathak, JRF, Miss Madhu Pandey, Miss Satya Qidwai and Miss Manisha Pandey. Special recognition should be given to Raghu Bhaiya-Lab attendant for his on-the-toe services in the Lab during my research work.

I am highly thankful to Sri. Lakshmi Kant Dikshit (Papaji), Smt. Savitri Dikshit (Ammaji), Dr. Shalini Dikshit and Dr. Rashmi Tiwari for their kind blessings during the course of my research investigation.

The care and support of my dear friends Deepika Pandey, Rakesh Kumar, Rajesh Kumar (Swayam), Piush Srivastava, KR Chaudhary is worth mentioning. Due recognition should be given to Rajesh Singh, Kshama Dwivedi, Sobha Didi, Arpit Kumar, PK Singh, Kamlesh Mishra, Anurag, Ashu Sir, Kunal Sir, Abhishek Sir, Bajpai Sir, VI Sir and many more for their care and support throughout.

Finally I must thank to the Printing and Offsets for giving my Thesis a proper shape and printing it meticulously.

No expression of appreciation and thanking will be complete without acknowledging the love, care, affection, sacrifices and silent blessings of my grandparents Late Mr. Surya Bali Pandey and Mrs. Gomati Pandey and my father Mr. Brijesh Kumar Pandey and mother Mrs. Manju Pandey. Their presence in my heart and soul strengthened me to cherish this task. My elder brother Abhishek, my sister Ila Vats and brother-in-law Rajeev Vats have always been a source of inspiration and motivation which has been immortally helpful in leading my journey. Many more names though not mentioned, have been a source of strength and encouragement should be duly acknowledged.

Last but not the least; I am thankful to reverential Almighty Lord Shiva. Whose blessings had always showered me with strength and confidence to fight hard and achieve my goals.
