“When you desire something, the whole world conspires to helping you to achieve it.”

Paulo Coelho

This journey in my academic endeavour has been a reality due to the constructive and purposeful support, guidance and encouragement rendered to me, whose help I specially acknowledge

Firstly, I express my gratitude and praise to the Almighty God for the abundant grace and blessings bestowed on me throughout the study.

I wish to thank Dr. Chandra Puri, former Pro Vice Chancellor, Research MGMIHS, Navi Mumbai and Dr Rajesh Goel, Registrar MGMIHS, for giving me the opportunity to complete my PhD thesis at this esteemed institute with all the necessary facilities.

I express my profound gratitude to my Guide Dr. Aloke Banerjee, Professor, and HOD, Department of Neurology, MGM hospital, Navi Mumbai, for his positive encouragement, valuable guidance and sustained patience that made me accomplish this study.

I am grateful to my co-guide, Dr Prabha Dasila, Director, MGM New Bombay college of nursing, Navi Mumbai for her constant support, untiring efforts, constant encouragement and valuable suggestions, thus enabling me in the completion of my PhD in nursing. Madam, you were a light in the darkness which guided me towards the goal.

I would like to thank Dr. Nitin Kadam, Medical Director, MGM New Bombay Hospital, Vashi, for his encouraging words and constant support during my study.

I also like to thank Dr. Kalyani Sen, Medical Superintendent, MGM, New Bombay Hospital Vashi, for her constant support and guidance

I express my sincere gratitude to all faculty members, administrative staff of MGMIHS, Navi -Mumbai for their constant support, guidance, and encouragement throughout the period of my research study.

My sincere and heartfelt thanks to the Heads of Hospitals for extending their support by granting permission to conduct the study at their hospitals.
I also take this opportunity to humbly thank all the experts from various fields for their valuable suggestions, expertise for validation of the tool and the protocol.

I am grateful to Mrs. Padhmavati, who made an effort to explain the statistical tests performed and cleared my doubts with patience and sincerity.

I am indebted to Ms. Tanya Rosebud Fernandes for editing my thesis and giving me feedback with all the corrections promptly. I run out of words to express my thanks and gratitude.

I specially thank all the participants of this study, without their cooperation it would have been impossible to conduct the study.

I am thankful to my friends, especially Mrs Bharti Veer, who have been a source of constant encouragement and immense support during this endeavour.

Last but not the least, I am totally indebted to my family, my husband, Mr. Milroy Fernandes who has been a rock in my endeavour, my children Lynsey and Taesha for their love and understanding, my parents and friends for the constant encouragement, patience, good wishes, and support throughout the study, without which this dream of doing Ph.D. could not have materialised.
