A CRITICAL STUDY OF POLITICAL TENSION IN SOUTH ASIA

1. INTRODUCTION
   1.1 Modern State System
   1.2 Relation Between Sovereign States
   1.3 International Politics
   1.4 Tension In Global Politics
   1.5 Tension in Regional Politics
      1.5.1 Tension in South Eastern Asia
      1.5.2 Tension in South Asia
      1.5.3 Tension in West Asia
   1.6 Methodology in The Proposed Study
   1.7 Conclusion

2. SOUTH ASIAN POLITICS
   2.1 Introduction
   2.2 South Asia
   2.3 South Asian Politics
   2.4 Role of India in South Asia
   2.5 Role of The Peripheral South Asian States
   2.6 Perception of South Asian States
      2.6.1 Perception of India
      2.6.2 Perception of Peripheral State
      Towards India
   2.7 Conclusion

3. TENSION IN SOUTH ASIA
   3.1 Introduction
   3.2 Conflict Between India and Pakistan
   3.3 Conflict Between India and Bangladesh
3.4 Conflict Between India and Sri Lanka
3.5 Conflict Between India and Nepal
3.6 Conflict Between India and Bhutan
3.7 Conflict among the Peripheral South Asian Countries
3.8 Conclusion

4. CAUSES OF POLITICAL TENSION IN SOUTH ASIA

4.1 Introduction
4.2 Geographical
4.3 Demographic
4.4 Ethnic
4.5 Economic
4.6 Historical
4.7 Conclusion

5. CONSEQUENCES OF POLITICAL TENSION IN SOUTH ASIA

5.1 Introduction
5.2 Bilateral Relations in South Asia
5.3 Non Emergence of South Asia As A Pressure Group in World Politics
5.4 Economic Zone - A Mirage
5.5 Social Tension in South Asia
5.6 Cultural Interaction Minimal
5.7 Arms Race in India
5.8 Conclusion
6. EFFORTS TO REDUCE POLITICAL TENSION IN SOUTH ASIA

6.1 Introduction
6.2 Bilateral
6.3 International
6.4 SAARC
   6.4.1 Genesis
   6.4.2 Objectives
   6.4.3 Attainments
6.5 SAPTA
6.6 SAFTA
6.7 Non-Governmental Initiative
6.8 Conclusion

7. STRATEGY TO REDUCE POLITICAL TENSION IN SOUTH ASIA

7.1 Introduction
7.2 Cultural Component
   7.2.1 People to People Dialogue
   7.2.2 Music & Performing Arts
   7.2.3 Games & Sports
   7.2.4 Academic & Professional Exchange
7.3 Economic & Commercial Component
   7.3.1 Bilateral Trade & Commerce
   7.3.2 Joint Ventures in South Asia
   7.3.3 Need to Make South Asia an Economic Zone
7.4 Political Component
   7.4.1 Security Perception
   7.4.2 Efforts to Crystalise South Asian Security
   7.4.3 Diplomatic Maturity
   7.4.4 Regular Bilateral & Multilateral (SAARC) Dialogue
   7.4.5 Refraining From Internationalizing Bilateral Problems
   7.4.6 Observe Panchsheel in Letter and Spirit
7.5 Conclusion