ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost I would like to thank my guide Dr. Sumitra Kulkarni. In addition to making valuable suggestions and giving me encouragement, her moral support, patience and enthusiasm enabled me to complete this work.

Besides her, I would like to express my gratitude to all respected staff members of my Ph.D Committee, Dr. Deepak Gaekwad, Dr. Radhika Sheshan, Dr. Shraddha Kumbhojkar, and Mr. Babasaheb Dudhosphate, who have been generous with their time, advice, insightful comments and questions. I also appreciate the help extended by the administrative staff of the History Department.

I will forever be thankful to the authorities of the Maharashtra State Archives, Elphinstone College, Mumbai, for their valuable technical assistance and guidance, especially Mr. D.D. Pawar and Mr. S.R. Duduskar (Daphtary) without whose strong backing it would have been impossible to locate the primary data required for this work, otherwise. I would also like to appreciate the efforts of Ms. Joana D’Souza of the Abhilekahgar Department for the efficiency with which she brought the records I requisitioned.

I am most grateful to the staff of the libraries at the Asiatic Society of Mumbai; the Fort and Kalina Campuses of the University of Mumbai; the Indian Merchants’ Chamber, Churchgate; K.C and H.R Colleges, Churchgate; The All India Institute of Local Self Government, at Bandra and finally the Jayakar Library, Pune. The staff at Mumbai Marathi Granth Sangrahalya, Dadar, was equally gracious in helping me gather the Marathi sources.

This work would have proved to be an unattainable dream if my college had not sanctioned me study leave, for a period of 2 years, under the Faculty Improvement Programme of the UGC. My deepest thanks are due to Dr. Mrs. Indu Shahani, Principal, HR College of Commerce and Economics, Mr. Deepak Lulla, Registrar and Mr. V.N. Sharma for facilitating this process.

Above all, I would like to express gratefulness for my family and friends. What could I do without them? I am indebted to my parents for always supporting me.
unequivocally, through all my ventures in life, and for having been there at Pune. during the last two years, to lend a helping hand all the time.

My family has, throughout, sustained me emotionally and physically in this endeavour. I express my heartfelt gratitude to my husband, Dr. Jitendra Kelkar, for maintaining the sanity of the household, while I laboured on my thesis. My little daughter Shreya Kelkar has been the sweetest, for despite her delightful ignorance, she showed unqualified faith in her mother’s work, which encouraged me to carry on. In addition to them I would also thank my brother in law, Dr. Atul Kelkar, for furnishing me with much valuable secondary material required for this work from the library at the Iowa State University. Behind every successful man there is a woman and behind every successful daughter in law is a mother in law. I thank my mother in law, Mrs. Nirmala Kelkar, for being the sole motivating factor behind all my progress since my marriage. I also wish to offer my fervent thanks to my sister in law, Mrs. Vidya Kale whose positive predictions kept me afloat, throughout this trying period and my blessings to my physiotherapist Dr. Aruna, for keeping my bones and muscles intact, all the while that I typed my thesis.

Amongst my friends, I sincerely thank Dr. Priyamvada Sawant from whom I have learnt much, both as a colleague and a researcher. She salvaged my confidence during my deepest crisis. Dr. Chhaya Goswami’s brain storming sessions in the Archives are unforgettable. Besides, her invaluable ideas gave me a better understanding of my subject. I am also grateful to Dr. Paromita Chakrabarti and Dr. Ahalya Samatani for their moral support all these years. I also appreciate my friend, Mrs. Sonali Hadkar, Registrar, SAS College of Management Studies, Boisar, for helping me with the technicalities of my study leave.

Last but not the least, my maids without whom Mission PH.D would have been a complete disaster. While they worked in the house and cooked, for all of us, I marinated in the Archives.

Pune.
