ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I always considered it trite and over fulsome of authors to list a full set of people who were invaluable always, that is until I wrote this thesis and realized just how deeply I am in debt to the people listed below.

First of all, I bow in reverence to Almighty God, the great artisan and sustainer, who showered his benevolence on me and provided me enough zeal to complete this work successfully.

I wish to express my profound regard and deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Dr. NEETA, Associate Professor, Department of English, JJT University, Jhunjhunu (Rajasthan) for his professional acumen, impeccable guidance, meticulous suggestions, illuminating discussions and insightful criticism throughout the course of investigation embodied in this thesis.

The words at my command are inadequate both in form and spirit to express my deep sense of indebtedness to my father Mr. Pramod Kumar, mother Mrs. Jamuna Devi, younger brother Mr Ajay Kumar, younger sister Ms Anoopa for their hard and continuous support throughout my studies without complaint. I am also thankful to my grand parents (Late) Sri Balvant Singh & (Late) Mrs. Kalavati Devi for their love, inspiration and the moral support they showered upon me and they kept motivating me during my whole work.

Help and facilities by Dr. Ravindra Singh for expert processing of the manuscript deserve a word of praise. I am also thankful to the members of non-teaching staff of the English Department for their cooperation.

With all faith in the Almighty I place this work in the hands of my examiner with hope that he will bear with the shortcoming that might have crept into this thesis inadvertently.
