CONTENTS

CHAPTER - I

The Creation of Pakistan 1 - 50

CHAPTER - II

The Problem of Minorities in India and Pakistan 51 - 107

The Punjab Disaster, Joint move to stop disorder unsuccessful, Genocide ?, Ideological divergences, Ganihiji’s Heroic Efforts, Disturbances in East Bengal, Nehru's Offer of No War Declaration, Nehru-Muhammad Ali Quate Agreement, Another War Scare, The minorities and the Constitution of Pakistan, Separate electorates and the fundamental rights for the minorities, Islam and the status of the minorities, Loyalties of the Hindus questioned, Minority problem in India, Behind communal riots: riots, Communal harmony efforts by the government and some suggestions, minorities and Indo-Pak relations.

CHAPTER - III

Evacuee Property Problem 108 - 151

Economic status of the refugees, Negotiations, First inter dominion Conference (Dec. 18-20, 1947), Change of approach, Joint official committee (March 22-23, 1948) (A) Agricultural Property,
(B) Urban immovable Property (C) Movable Property, The Second inter-dominion Conference (April 15 to 18, 1948), The third inter-dominion Conference (July 22, 1948), Indian charge of non-implementation of the agreement, The Fourth inter-dominion Conference (Dec. 6 to 9, 1948), The Fifth inter-dominion Conference-Karachi Agreement (Jan. 10 to 13, 1949), The Sixth inter-dominion Conference (June 25 to 29, 1949), Movable Property Agreement, Immovable Property—further negotiations, Agreement upon the procedure, List of evacuee’s movable property exchanged, Evacuee's movable property restoration—agreement with Pakistan, Rehabilitation and settlement work of refugees in Pakistan, Rehabilitation of refugees in India, Expenditure on displaced persons (Table), Dandiakanya scheme, Conclusion.

CHAPTER - IV :

Inio-Pakistan Economic Relations

CHAPTER - V :

Indio-Pak Canal Water Dispute

CHAPTER - VI :

The Kashmir Problem

Geographical importance, Early history, The Doargas, religious and cultural heterogeneity.
Political awakening, and Sheikh Abdullah, National Conference and Jinnah's disappointment, struggle with feudalism and Gandhi's visit, Partition of India and question of accession, Maharaja's in decision, standstill agreement with Pakistan, border raids and economic blockade, the first invasion, accession to India, Jinnah proposes discussion, the need for U.N. intervention.

CHAPTER VII:
Kashmir Problem and the U.N.O. 273-324

CHAPTER VIII:
Developments in Kashmir 325-374

CHAPTER IX:
India's Relations with Pakistan - Retrospect and Prospect 375-422

Prepartition review, Pakistan and after, search for allies, Pakistan's dream of snatching Kashmir by force shattered, Attack in Kutch, The War and Peace (1965), The Tashkent Agreement and its violation, The emergence of Bangladesh and Inio-Soviet Treaty, The Simla Pact, Achievements of the Agreement—an analysis, Sino-Pak Axis and India, The Karakoram Highway, U.S. Shadow over Inio-Pak Relations, No War Pact Proposal, Conclusion, Proposals for the future, Defence expenditure of Pakistan and India during 1947-59 (Table-I), Defence expenditure of Pakistan and India during 1960-79 (Table-II).

SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY

MAPS

a) India and Pakistan June 1948.
b) Dividing the Waters.
c) Kashmir and its neighbours.
e) Communal distribution in Jammu and Kashmir State(I)
f) The Jammu and Kashmir State(II)
g) Areas occupied by India and Pakistan respectively at Cease-fire on 17 December 1971.
h) Karakoram Highway.

********
