Acknowledgements

The main emphasis of my thesis has been social and ethical aspects of Sant Kabir's philosophy. It is the study of the connectivity of personal and spiritual life with social and ethical code of conduct. Only an ethical person can be spiritually elevated. Such a spiritually elevated person dedicates his life to the service of humanity.

I take pleasure in stating that my thesis would not have reached its completion without the help of various important personalities. Hence, I deeply feel indebted to many people.

First and foremost, my deepest debt of gratitude and sincere thanks go to Sadguru Kabirsahab. I thank my excellent guide Dr. Surjeet Kaur Chahal, Professor, Department of the Philosophy, Savitribai Phule Pune University, for her invaluable suggestions, constructive criticisms, inspiring guidance and encouragement. She was kind enough to devote her generous attention to my work and to place her precious time even at odd hours, at my disposal for discussions. This study would not have been possible, without her many faceted help. I owe her much more than I can explain in words.

My sincere and heartfelt thanks are due to Dr. Lata Chhatre, Head of Philosophy Department, Savitribai Phule Pune University, and I extend my sincere gratitude to Dr. Shridar Akashkar, Dr. H. Navale for their valuable suggestions.

I thank my mother, sisters, Vedant and Vanshika for their generous encouragement and motivations that they gave me from time to time. My whole hearted thanks to Sadhavi Dayaben for her full support without whom thesis would have never been possible.
I sincerely thank Mr. Kamalakar Gaikwad sir, the librarians of philosophy department library for providing me books during the period of my research work. I am also very grateful to all my friends of the Department of philosophy, Savitribai Phule Pune University, for continually and kindly giving me their time, assistance and encouragement during my research work. My special thanks to Prof. Radhika Jadhav and Mr. Jekap Halam for their continued help and support.

Sudha Pandit

Research Student