ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Before putting my pen to the paper for my thesis, I invoked the divine blessings of Goddess Sarswati to enlighten my intellect and inspire my will power to complete my work. The present study was made possible by the magnanimous guidance, cooperation and with a lot of gratitude to those that have helped me to complete this research work.

Feelings of gratitude are perhaps the most difficult ones to express in words. Words just fail me when I think of thanking my esteemed and adorable research guide, supervisor Prof. Dr. G. K. Shirude, Director and Head Research centre, Prin. N.G.Naralkar Institute of Career Development and Research, Pune-30 for his ever available guidance, masterly approach, meticulous attention and timely suggestions throughout the course of my study. The words prove to be insufficient to express my deep feelings for his high benevolence and promptly guidance, even at the time of his most busy and tight schedule. He not only enlightened me with illumines flame of learning but also inspired me throughout my research.

I feel grateful to Dr. B.V. Sangvikar (Prof. and Head, Department of Management Sciences, SPPU), Dr. (Capt.) C. M. Chitale (Professor, Department of Management Sciences, SPPU) for valuable academic directions which helped me abundantly in the entire process of my research study.

The study would not have been in its final structure without the support of Librarian Mrs. Gauri Patankar, Mrs. Ujwalla Vaidya and the entire staff of Naralkar Institute of Career Development and Research.
I am also obliged and thankful to my colleagues and friends for their untiring cooperation. I have been fortunate to have the best colleagues one could possibly wish for. I regret that I cannot mention everyone by name.

I take this opportunity to express my deepest gratitude to all the respondents from Automobile Industries, who not only responded to my questionnaire but also have given their valuable suggestion for this study. Without their responses I could not have seen the end of my research.

I am thankful to Dr. Mrs. K. R. Joshi, Principal, PES’s Modern College of Engineering, Pune-05 who have given permission to enroll for Ph.D. while on duty.

The continual support of my husband Sameer Bhandwalkar, my daughters Haripriya and Janhavee, my sister Yogita, my brothers Madhav and Jay, the real spirit behind my research study, made this thesis possible.

Words are inadequate to express my thanks to my father in law Mr. Anil Bhandwalkar, my parents Mr. Dnyaneshwar Khoje and Mrs. Nirmala Khoje the stalwarts in my life. They have showered me with their blessings and encouraged carrying on during time of adversity. I also thank my whole family members for their valuable support.

My thanks are also due to Dr. Amod Markale, Mr. Anant Sirdeshmukh, Mr. Yogesh Upadhy, Mr. Nambudaripad, Mr. Dhaneshwar, Dr. Shakeel Ahmed for their genuine critique and appreciation from time to time.

Last but not the least, I thank the almighty for the blessings.
