I would humbly dedicate this my work to our Divine Mother Shri Mataji Nirmala Devi, that your name may be ever more worshipped, glorified and praised.

First of all, I bow to her holiness Shri Mataji who is the source and end of all, and who graciously inspired me to complete my work. I wish to place on record my deep sense of gratitude to my esteemed research guide Dr. S.N. Singh, Associate Professor and Head, Dept. of Economics, P.P.N. College, Kanpur for his omniscient guidance, helpful criticism and unflinching support. He introduced me to fascinating realm of village development schemes and nurtured the ability of independent work. I am sincerely thankful to him for his practical suggestions and constant help at different stages of the study without which it was perhaps impossible for me to complete this work in its present shape.

Dr. Indu Saxena, Principal, R.S. Government Degree College, Shivrajpur, Kanpur and my colleagues in college specially Dr. Ozair Aziz offered their unstinted co-operation and help during the period of this work. I express my heartfelt thanks to them.
My thanks are also due to Shri Rajeev Awasthi Assistant Economics & statistics officer, Department of rural development U.P. and Librarian, Department of rural development U.P., who helped in finding the relevant literature and data from the different sources.

Lastly, I thank my wife and my daughter for not complaining and bearing with me during this period.
