ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A researcher requires support and help from various institutions and persons for the successful completion of the work. This starts from the very commencement of the effort to do research to the submission of a research work. I also have had the help and encouragement of several persons and for this, I am taking this opportunity to express my deep indebtedness to all of them.

First of all, I am taking this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to my research supervisor, Dr. B. Bindu, Senior Lecturer, Department of Anthropology, Kannur University, for her valuable advice, suggestions and support in finishing this work. I also gratefully remember all the co-operation extended to me by the Head of the Department, Prof. Vineetha Menon, faculty and staff of the Department of Anthropology, Kannur University and the former Head of the Department, Prof. B. Ananda Bhanu.

I ought to mention at least a few names among my respondents who extended their help and support during my fieldwork. C.K. Kerala Varma and C.K. Ravindra Varma of Chirakkal Kovilakam helped me in several ways. M.V. Vishnu Nambuthiri, Muhammed Koyamma of Arakkal Kottaram, Vasudevan Elaya Pidarar, K. Kumaran were again a source of immense help. Kottarathil Kunhiraman and Nalambreth Vinayakan also helped in imparting information in several situations.

I would like to thank the librarians and staff of the Kannur University Campus Library, Central Library, and C.H. Muhammed Koya Library-University of Calicut, University of Kerala -Kariavattom Campus Library, Jawaharlal Nehru Memorial Public Library-Kannur, Regional Archives Kozhikode, and KIRTADS Library, Kozhikode.

It is a pleasure to record my heartfelt indebtedness to the invisible help rendered by my parents, husband and son. My father and mother, M. Sathyaranyanand and P. Chandramathi and my husband and son are very cooperative and encouraging and I express my profound gratitude to all of them.
Finally, I must express thanks to my respondents for their ungrudging co-operation in answering my questions, which is definitely a tedious work. With a profound sense of gratitude I remember all the inhabitants of the village I surveyed.
