ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Foremost I would like to thank The Lord Almighty who Blessed me and paved my way to the completion of my project.

The teacher is an architect of the destiny of the student. The quality of the student also reflects the quality of the teacher, nothing in the history worth to be named has been achieved without the help of a teacher. It is very important to remember the contributions of different individuals, friends and institutions in a research work.

It is indeed my great pleasure to thank my supervisor Professor Geeta Manaktala, Department of Philosophy, Panjab University, Chandigarh. I owe a debt of gratitude for her remarkably insightful guidance. Her magnanimous co-operation, meticulous guidance and propitious help forced me to crystallize my conflicting point of views during the course of my study, without her support this research work would not have been possible. Professor Geeta Manaktala is a humble and kind person that is spite of her ill health and undergone a surgery never refused to help me and also bailed me out of every trouble with her untiring efforts. I have no words but to express my immense gratitude and deep indebtedness towards her.

I am also thankful to my chairperson Dr. Shivani Sharma who encouraged me in all possible way. I am also grateful to Professor V.T. Sebastian, Professor H.P. Sah Professor Asha Maudgil, Mr Lallan Baghel, Dr Pankaj Srivastava for sparing their valuable time to give me a clear vision and thinking in a critical way.

Encouragement rendered by all the staff members and my friends in the department also needs special mention I would be failing in my duty if I did not mention the financial support of Indian Council Of Philosophical Research. New Delhi which was given to me in a form of Junior Research Fellowship, without this aid it would have been very difficult to complete my work.

Last but not the least, I also would like to dedicate this work to my parents, brother (Sukhvir Singh) and my elder bhabi (Shilpa Singh) who have been constantly praying for me to complete this research work.
Last but not least I thank my staff members, Ms. Rajani our Librarian, Ms Anuradha, Ms Pratibha and Mr Jaspreet Singh. I would like to thanks Taranjit Singh Dhillon and Mr. Deepak Khanna & my special thanks to my colleagues Ms Ruchita Chandel, Ms Amrita Sharma and my childhood friend Mr Gurdeep Singh, Dilsher Singh who till now are giving me a moral support.
