Acknowledgement

My sincere thanks to Hon’ble Vice Chancellor Prof. R.C. Sobti for his help in providing all the facilities and encouragement to the Department of Human Development and Family Studies, School for Home Science which helped researchers in performing their best.

I am extremely thankful to Prof. Sunita. Mishra, Head & Dean, Deptt. of Human Development & Family Studies for providing the necessary facilities during the course of study and research work successfully.

She is a woman of great intellectual veracity and committed to nurture the talent. Her intellectual commitment, clarity of thought and passion for perfection helped me to launch into a serious study of food adulteration, her scientific temper and research interest hugged me affectionately. Dr. Neetu Singh, Assistant Professor, Deptt. of Human Development and Family Studies, BBAU as a supervisor who taught me more by example than by precept, so much about critical approach and style in any scientific undertaking. I consider it a great opportunity to be able to work under her supervision. She did not only guide me but bestowed upon me the love, affection and benevolence. I wish to have her blessing forever. Her gratitude and magnanimity are unforgettable and cannot be expressed in words; the only thing I can repay to her is the eternal reverence from my heart and soul.

I would also express my thanks to Dr. Mrs. Shalini Agarwal, &Dr. (Mrs.) U.V. Kiran Assistant Professors in the School for Home Sciences, for their useful suggestions, timely help and moral encouragement throughout this study.

I am extremely thankful to UGC for providing financial assistance in form of UGC-RGNF to carry out my Ph.D. degree programme. I feel fortunate to have short but pleasant company with my seniors who imparted a lot of help by sharing professional skills and knowledge. I genuinely appreciate the ever-willing help given by my colleagues during the research work. I thank all other faulty members and all the technical and supporting staff of the faculty.

No appropriate word could be traced in the presently available lexicon to express my full respect and indebtedness to my honored parents, Ex.-Prof.(Dr.)Shiva Kant and Smt. Usha Devi and my parents-in law Late Shri Ram Bharosey and Smt. Ramshri Devi. The love and affection liberally showered on me by elder brother Dr. Atul Prakash, bhabhi Jyoti and my younger brother Siddharth Prakash and my lovely nephew Abhyuday who have always tried to give me the best I could ever receive in my life, and whose blessings and will power have placed me in a much better stage than I have ever deserved. What they have done to me I cannot repay only in the form of few words of gratitude, it needs more beyond by cerebration and capacity.

Finally thanks to my wonderful husband, Dr. Sandeep Kumar for being patient, supportive and helping at every stage of this thesis. You always take my problems as your own, help me to overcome them, and encourage me to achieve a higher level. Thank you so much for your faithful love and endless help.

A formal statement of acknowledgement will hardly met the ends of justice in the matter of expression of my deeply felt sincere and allegiant gratitude to all who encouraged and helped me during my stay. I feel sorry if, I forget to mention anyone. In the end I salute to all the creatures of a lesser God who sacrificed themselves to achieve mere means of mine.
