BIBLIOGRAPHY

Books

- Austin John, Lectures on jurisprudence, revised and edited by Robbert Campbell, Johan Murray: London (1885)
• Kant Dr. Neelam, An Introduction to Political Science, Central Law Publications: Allahabad.
• Kesari Dr. U.P.D Lectures on Administrative Law, Central Law Publications: 8th Allahabaded.
• Leyden W. Von, John Locke and Natural Law, Philosophy, Cambridge University Press (1956).
• MacGUIGAN Mark R, Jurisprudence Reading and Cases, University of Toronto Press: Canada (1996).

• Singh Dr. Avtar and Singh Dr. Harpreet, Introduction to Jurisprudence, LexisNexis, ed. 4th (2015).
• Singhal’s, Lectures on Jurisprudence, Shree Ram Law House, Chandigarh.

Journals

• Aishwarya Deb & Prithwish Roy Chowdhury, A Critical Analysis of the Proximity of Natural Law to the Indian Constitution, ISOR Journal of Humanities and Social Science, Vol. 20 Aus. 2015,
• Analytical School/ Positivism Theory of Law, available at: www.lawdessertation.blogspot.in (visited on November 4, 2016)
• Bhavani Kumar, Rule of Law in India, Available at: https://www.lawctopus.com/academike/rule-of-law-in-India/ (visited on November 23, 2017).
• Burt Newborne, “The Supreme Court of India”, available on http://icon.oxfordjournals.org/content/1/3/476.full.pdf. assessed on 19 November 2016

• Dr. Dilip Ukey and Tejaswini Malegaonkar, “Right to Life and Personal Liberty-Challenges and Judicial Response”, vol. 30(4) IBR, 539-540 (2003).

• Dr. Shubash Chander, “Relevancy of the doctrine of pleasures and pain in Indian Legal system” (Indian Bar review, Vol. XL III (3) 2016).

• Harashvardhan, Judicial Activism in India, 26 ILJP, 134(1992).

• Justice K.N. Saikia, “Philosophy of Natural Law”, Published in Institute Journal September 1996.
• Lipika Sharma, “Judicial Activism in India: Meaning and its Implication”, available at:

- Prof. Dr. Nishtha Jaswal and Dr. Lakhwinder Singh, “Judicial Activism in India”, Bharati Law Review
• ‘Revival of Natural Law’ available at: https://www.google.co.in/search?q=Revival+of+Natural+Law%E2%80%99&oq=Revival+of+Natural+Law%E2%80%99&aqs=chrome..69i57j0l5.1761j0j7&sourceid=chrome&ie=UTF-8 (visited on February 2, 2018)

• T K Tope, “Supreme Court of India and Social Jurisprudence” 8(1988) 1 SCC (Jour).

Debates

- Parliamentary Debates, 1951, Vol. 12 Col. 9625
- Dr. Ambedkar, ‘Constituent Assembly Debates, India.

Websites

- https://www.academia.edu
- https://books.google.co
- http://digitalcommons.usu.edu
- http://web.nmsu.edu
- https://etherwave.wordpress.com
- http://www.manupatra.com
- www.legalservice.com
- http://link.springer.com
- http://www.legalservicesindia.com/
- https://www.questia.com
- https://www.academia.edu/
- http://www.jstor.org
- http://www.iep.utm.edu/bentham/
- www.lawdissertation.blogspot.in
- www.oxfordbibliographies.com
- www.google.co
- www.legallyindia.com
- https://www.google.co.in
- https://www.lawctopus.com
- http://iosrjournals.org
- https://www.lawctopus.com
- https://www.gktoday.in
- http://icon.oxfordjournals.org
- www.indiatoday.com
- http://cbseacademic.in
- www.legallyindia.com
- https://www.lawctopus.com/academike/judicial-activism/