REFERENCES

Primary Sources

Secondary Sources

Bauer, Isabella. Article on MC Raj (Originally published in German) Posted by MC Raj 31 May/ 1st June 2014.

Gilrog, John et al. “Yuin, Kamilaroi, Sami, and Maori people’s reflections on experiences as ‘indigenous scholars’ in ‘Disability Studies’ and Decolonisation”.

Hamalainen, Soile. “Sami yoik, Sami history, Sami health: a narrative review”.

Kickett, Marion. “Examination of how a culturally-appropriate definition of resilience affects the physical and mental health of Aboriginal people”, Diss. The University of Western Australia, 2011.Web. 6 June 2016.

Kumari .K.Merlin. “Contemporary perspective of the Fourth World Literature”.

Kumar Verma, Dharmandra. “Dalit Identity As Evolutionary discourse in India”.

<https://www.livemint.com/Politics/wEkZH1prIxXFm5gypAyJPO/Drawing\parallelsbetween-Dalit-and-AfricanAmerican-rights.html>.

Leal Ferreira, Mariana. The UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous People, Acting for indigenous rights

Madavkar, Pavan, “Indian dalit Literature: Quest for Identity to Social Equality”.
McGlade, Hannah. “Australia is still fighting racism and it's time we faced up to it”,
Mckay, Marlene Elizabeth. Engaging Feminism: A Pedagogy for Aboriginal Peoples.

Oesterd, Tor Ingar. “Sami’s experience more discrimination than Norwegians”.

Ormiston, Naadli Todd, “Re-Conceptualizing Research: An Indigenous Perspective”.

Szoke, Helen. “Racism exists in Australia- are we doing enough to address it?” 16 Feb. 2012. Web 14 March 2018

