CHAPTER I.

INTRODUCTION:

Political Significance of Roads.

1-18

CHAPTER II.

DEVELOPMENT OF MECHANICAL TRANSPORT IN INDIA.

CHAPTER III.

NATIONALISATION OF ROAD TRANSPORT

Meaning of Nationalisation- Object of Nationalisation -Steps for Nationalisation- Arguments for Nationalisation- Arguments

CHAPTER IV.

GROWTH OF ROADWAYS IN U.P.

Fleet of Roadways Vehicles- Vehicles in Kanpur Region- Routes under Operation- Routes in Kanpur Region- Roads taken over during the last Five Financial Years. Passengers carried by the Roadways- Passengers carried in Kanpur Region- Services rendered by Roadways-City Bus Services- Acquisition of land and construction of Buildings during the last five financial year, Third Five Year Plan Fourth Five Year Plan- New Building for Collectorganj Bus Station, Kanpur- Roadways and Five Year Plans of the State- Progress of Roadways in Kanpur Region- Provision of City Bus Service- General Rules for City Bus Service- Routes under Operation. ...

CHAPTER V.

ADMINISTRATION AND ORGANISATION OF ROADWAYS:

Transport Commissioner- Deputy Transport Commissioner- Chief Mechanical Engineer- Financial Advisor-cum- Chief Accounts Officer- Division of Province into Regions- General Manager- Assistant General Managers- Accounts Officer- Service Manager- Administration of Kanpur Region- Assistant General Manager( Administration),Assistant General Manager (Traffic),Assistant General Manager(City Bus Service ) Assistant General Manager ( Etawah )- Regional Advisory Committees- Daily Routine of Roadways Buses...
CHAPTER VI.

TECHNICAL SET UP

Early History - Workshop Organisation - Agra Region, Allahabad Region, Bareilly Region, Gorakhpur Region, Kanpur Region, Lucknow Region, Meerut Region, Kumaon Region, Garhwal Region, Tanakpur Region, Central Workshop - Major and Minor Repairs - Body Building - Complete Engine Reconditioning - Battery Charging and Repairs - Rejuvenation of Buses - Central Store - Tyre Retreading Section - Regional Workshops - Kanpur Regional Workshop - Sub-Regional Workshops - Sub Regional Workshops in Kanpur Region - Training of Technicians - Training of Drivers

CHAPTER VII.

ROADWAYS PERSONNEL

Division of Staff - Incentive to Staff - Recruitment of Staff - Recruitment of Conductors - Recruitment of Drivers - Recruitment of Clerical Staff - Recruitment of Engineering Staff - Physical Standard - Staff of Kanpur Region - Scales of Pay - Provident Fund - Other Allowances - Allowances and Rewards Given to Roadways Employees - Allowances - Cash Rewards - Grant of Special Rewards - Reward to Technical Staff - Grant of Rewards to Employees During 1966-67 - Critical Estimate - Employment Conditions - Division of Operatives - Attendance - Leave - Pension - Hours of Work - Housing - Welfare Activities - Welfare Activities in Kanpur Region

CHAPTER VIII.

FINANCING OF ROADWAYS

Introduction - Nature of Roadways Capital - Roadways Working or Operating Expenses - Factors Affecting the Operational Cost - Wages - Maintenance Cost - Overhead Charges - A Critical Appraisal. Fixation of Rates and Fares - Passenger Fair - (i) Routes Parallel to Railways (b) Non-Parallel routes-

CHAPTER IX.

AMENITIES TO PASSENGERS

CHAPTER X.

PROBLEMS OF ROADWAYS

Division of Problems - (A) Basic Problems (1) Narrow Roads (2) Slow Moving Traffic (3) Railway Level Corssing (4) Inadequate Street Lighting (5) Shortage of Bridges (6) Problem of Accidents. (B) Organisational Staff Problems of Roadways (1) Direction Staff (2) General Manager (3) Traffic Manager (4) Service Manager (5) Bad Set-up (C) Financial Problems of Roadways (1) No uniform Purchase Policy (2) High Incidence of Taxation (3) Lack of Statistics (4) Handicap in Acquisition of Capital. (D) Traffic Problems of Roadways (1) Over Crowding (2) Uncertain Traffic (3) Goonda Element (4) Disobedience of Road Regulations
SUGGESTIONS AND CONCLUSION

Suggestion for further Development of Roadways- Construction of Better Roads- Strict Punctuality- High Running Speed- Provision of Cloak Room- Need for More Roadways Services in Villages- Greater Amenities- Starting of Night Services between Important Towns- Modern and Better Type of Building- Refreshment Room and Restaurants- Manufacture of Spare Parts in the Roadways- Better Pay Scales- and Bonus to the Employees- Miscellaneous Facilities for the Employees- Formation of a Committee for Solving Labour Disputes- Training Centres- Employees should be Sent to Abroad- Constant Publicity- Separate Finance- Whole Sole Change in the existing Administration Staff- (1) Change in Direction Staff (2) Reduction in Administrative Staff (3) Task according to the Capacity- Scientific Accounting System- Low Incidence of Taxation- Minimisation of Accidents- Promotion of Tourist Traffic- Public- Co-operation- More efforts for Co-operation between the Roadways and Railways- Need for Statutory Corporation- Suggestion regarding City Bus Service in Kanpur Region (i) Provision of Sheds (ii) Time Tables (iii) Special Buses (iv) Principle of Equal Behaviour (v) Greater care for Old Men, Women and Children (vi) Strict Discipline (vii) Smoking Strictly Prohibited (viii) Special Buses at Chunniganj (x) Re-organisation of Bus Stops- (xi) Rush Hour Traffic (xii) First Ticket and then Seat (xiii) Regularity of the Buses (xiv) Increase in number of Buses (xv) Steps to Prevent Deterioration of Buses- (xvi) Re-organisation of Routes (xvii) Re-organisation of City Bus Services-- Conclusion ... ... ... ... ... 202-225

SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY ... ... ... ... 226-227
REPORTS AND OTHERS

2. Report of Indian Road Development Committee, 1933.
3. The Motor Vehicles Act, 1939
5. Report of Motor Vehicles Taxation Enquiry Committee, 1950
6. The Judgement of Allahabad High Court on Nationalised Road.
7. The Road Transport Corporation Bill, 1950
8. The Road Transport Bill, U.P., 1950
12. Commerce and Eastern Economists
13. Newzealand Review
14. German News (Weekly)
15. First, Second, Third and Fourt Five Year Plans.
17. Economic Review
18. Daily Newspapers.

***************
**************
************
*****