CONTENTS

Chapter One  Introduction: Importance of an orderly finance in agriculture and Reserve Bank of India’s policy adopted till 1955 in this regard.

- Importance of agriculture in Indian economy 1
- Financial requirements of agriculture in relation to purpose, tenure and security 2
- Need and Criterion for an 'orderly finance' for sound agriculture 5
- Responsibility of the Central Bank in Agricultural finance 6
- Advisory status of the Bank in building a sound agricultural system 8
- Formulation of rural credit policies on institutional basis 12
- Recommendations of the Agricultural Finance Sub-Committee 1945, Co-operative Planning Committee, Rural Banking Enquiry Committee, Informal Conference 14

Chapter Two  Statutory role and organisation of Reserve Bank of India towards agricultural finance

- Statutory provisions of the Act 25
- Agricultural Credit Department 26
- Operational role of the Department in coordination of money-lenders and indigenous bankers 28
- Future of money-lenders and indigenous bankers 36
- Efforts in reorganisation of co-operative movement 39

Chapter Three: Credit policies of Reserve Bank of India with reference to agriculture.

- I. State Co-operative Bank
  A. Short-term finance
     (a) Financial provisions 52
     (b) Forms of facilities 53
     (c) Periodicity 58
     (d) Lending rate 59
  B. Medium term loans 61
  C. Long term loans 68
- II. Financial accommodation for agricultural and allied purposes to other institutions 71
Chapter Four: Agricultural credit policies of

A. United States of America 75
B. Australia 83
C. Lessons for India 89

Chapter Five: Reorganisation of Agricultural Credit policy since 1955 93 - 121

A. Recommendations and implementation of recommendations: Rural Credit Survey Committee 93
B. Later developments - Rural Credit follow-up survey 104
C. Rural Credit Review Committee 112
D. Banking Commission 118

Chapter Six: Creation of funds and agricultural finance 123 - 159

A. Creating National Agricultural Credit (Long Term Operation) Fund 123
B. Loans to State Governments for share capital contributions 127
C. Medium term loans for agricultural purposes 135
D. Purchase of debentures of land mortgage banks 145
E. Loans to Agricultural Refinance Corporation 149
F. National Agricultural Credit (Stabilisation) Fund 150

Chapter Seven: Strengthening of the credit structure through an establishmental policy of the Reserve Bank of India 160 - 227

A. State Bank of India 160 - 179
B. Provision of State Bank of India Act 1955 160
C. Branch Expansion programme 161
D. Remittance facilities 167
E. Accommodation to marketing and processing societies 168
F. Procurement operations 171
G. Fertiliser distribution 172
H. Loans against warehousing receipts 174
I. Interim accommodation to land development banks 177

B. Central & State Warehousing Corporation 179 - 190
C. Place of warehousing corporations 179
D. Establishment of Central and State Warehousing Corporation 181
E. Their expansion programme 183
F. Utilisation of warehousing receipts 187
(iii)

= Deficiencies and suggestions 139
C. Agricultural Refinance Corporation 190 - 210
= Background 190
= Establishment of the Corporation 193
D. Financing of agriculture by 211 - 227
   commercial banks
= Suitability of commercial banks for the job 211
= Social control of banks 213
= Nationalisation of 14 major banks 215
= Their role in the provision of agricultural finance 216
= Scheme of financing primary agricultural credit societies by commercial banks 217
= Progress and achievements 220
= Critical assessment and suggestions 222

Chapter Eight: Developmental policy of the Bank through State Government 228 - 242

Chapter Nine: Reserve Bank of India's policy to rationalise co-operative credit movement 243 - 258

= Causes of special interest in Bank's policy 243
= Institutional system an imperative 244
= Financial provisions to meet demands of such agencies 246
= Procedural changes and liberalisation of conditions 248
= Intensive Agricultural District Programmes & Co-operatives 249
= Statutory inspections of apex and central co-operative banks 251
= Co-operative training 252

Chapter Ten: Long term credit policy of Reserve Bank of India - Land Development Banks 259 - 278

= Provisions of Reserve Bank of India Act 259
= Diversion of finance through State Government 260
= Direct investments in the debentures 262
= Establishment of land development banks in each State 272
= Voluntary inspection 275
= Introduction of special courses 276

Chapter Eleven: Critical assessment of judicious utilisation of available resources and leakages in the system 279 - 303

contd... (iv)
(iv)

=Implementation of crop loan system
=Inadequate supervision
=Incidence of overdue
=Concessional finance
=Share capital contributions by the State Government
=Share linking with borrowings
=Government borrowings for share capital and interest structure =Recovery of co-operative dues through marketing societies
=Multiplicity of agencies
=Reserve Bank: A purveyor of main line of credit

Chapter Twelve: Monetary policy of the Reserve Bank of India vis-a-vis agriculture 304 - 318

=Place of selective credit control in monetary policy
=Powers to impose selective credit
control
=Guidance to scheduled commercial banks through directives
=Extension of the Bank's powers to co-operative banks
=Reactions of the banks to these schemes
=Extent of success achieved
=Suggestions

Chapter Thirteen: Conclusions and Suggestions 319 - 333

=Integration of indigenous bankers =Reorganisation of present three tier co-operative structure =Government guarantee & medium term
loans
=Warehousing and loans against Warehousing receipts
=Government share capital contributions in co-operative institutions
=Co-operatives and selective credit
control
=Crop loan system for production loans
=Concessional finance and Reserve Bank
=Provision of medium term conversion
loans =Debenture flotation programmes of land development banks and Reserve Bank

321
326
330
331
LIST OF TABLES

1. Table showing increase in advances for seasonal agricultural operations and marketing of crops during 1944-46 to 1950-51 13

2. Table showing short-term drawings and outstanding for seasonal agricultural operations and marketing of crops during 1950-51 to 1973-74 63

3. Table showing medium term loans issued and outstanding by the Reserve Bank during 1955-56 to 1973-74 70

4. Table showing details of Bank's investments in Rural and ordinary debentures during 1950-51 to 1973-74. 84

5. Table showing long term mortgage loans issued by mortgage bank department of Reserve Bank of Australia 87

6. Table showing advances made by Reserve Bank of Australia for marketing credit during 1956-57 to 1966-67. 89

7. Table showing funds made available for research activities by the Reserve Bank of Australia. 93

8. Table showing proportionate advances made by various agencies in 1951-52. 94

9. Table showing the position of number of central cooperative banks vis-a-vis districts in certain States 94

10. Table showing percentage of total number of societies on the basis of audit classification. 124

11. Table showing contributions and outstanding position of the National Agricultural Credit (Long Term Operation) Fund. 126

12. Table showing the profits transferred to Government by the Bank. 129

13. Table showing the loans utilised by the Government for share capital contributions. 130

14. Table showing the position of Government share capital contributions in different co-operative institutions 130A

15. Table showing percentage of Government share capital contributions to total share capital of various co-operative institutions. 130

16. Table showing the percentage increase in share capital of various co-operative institutions.
17. Table showing proportion of Government share capital contribution to the total contributions.
18. Table showing medium term loans issued for various purposes.
19. Table showing utilisation of medium term loan limits sanctioned by the Bank.
20. Table showing the position of rural debentures holdings of the Bank.
21. Table showing the position of National Agricultural Credit (Stabilisation) Fund.
22. Table showing utilisation of Stabilisation Fund.
23. Table showing the advances granted on the investments of Stabilisation Funds of societies.
24. Table showing areawise growth of branches of State Bank of India.
25. Table showing yearly growth of branches by banks.
26. Table showing percentage growth of State Bank of India as compared to all India.
27. Table showing the volume of remittance facilities allowed.
28. Table showing advances for food procurement and other non-food crops by State Bank of India.
29. Table showing advances for fertilisers and other inputs by State Bank of India.
30. Table showing advances allowed against warehousing receipts by State Bank of India.
31. Table showing the growth of warehouses.
32. Table showing godowns held by other co-operative societies.
33. Table showing advances against warehousing receipts.
34. Table showing financial position of the Corporation.
35. Table showing agencywise assistance by the Corporation.
36. Table showing purposewise assistance by the Corporation.
37. Table showing purposewise commitments.
38. Table showing yearwise commitments, assistance to debentures and drawings 200
39. Table showing Reserve Bank's share holdings in the Corporation 206
40. Table showing advances of scheduled banks 214
41. Table showing direct and indirect advances by commercial banks for agricultural purposes 220
42. Table showing indirect advances by commercial banks for agriculture through primary agricultural credit societies 221
43. Table showing groupwise advances by schedule banks for agriculture 221A
44. Table showing borrowings, advances and overdues of primary agricultural credit societies and central co-operative banks 234
45. Table showing growth of deposits of various co-operative banks 241
46. Table showing the proportional growth of deposits in co-operative banks 241
47. Table showing Government contribution in land development banks 261
48. Table showing amounts outstanding under rural and ordinary debentures held by the Bank 263
49. Table showing percentage of recovery fixed for financing of land development banks 266
50. Table showing contributions in the special debentures 272
51. Table showing maximum borrowing power and actual borrowing, Government share capital contribution and overdues - State co-operative banks 294
52. Table showing the maximum borrowing power and actual borrowings in case of some specific banks 295
53. Table showing maximum borrowing power and actual borrowings, Government share capital and overdues - central co-operative banks 296
54. Table showing the recovery of dues through marketing societies 300
55. Table showing borrowings from the Bank as against loans outstanding against members 303
56. Table showing the movement in advances against certain crops under selective credit control measures in relation to total credit.