ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I consider it a proud privilege to place on record the deepest sense of my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Ganesh Chandra for his inspiring and unfailing guidance throughout these investigations. It is indeed a pleasure to work with him.

I wish to acknowledge my gratitude to Drs. R.S. Tewari, P.C. Dwivedi, J.P. Mittal, V.M. Patwardhan and B.S. Rawat for their cooperation and encouragement at various stages of this work.

I express my heartiest thanks to the authorities of this Institute for providing the necessary facilities and to the University Grants Commission, New Delhi, for the award of a Research Fellowship.

My sincere thanks are also due to Messrs H.R. Verma, N. Bajpai, P.C. Sinha and Vimal Singh for their efforts in preparation of this dissertation.
Last but not the least, my sincere gratitude goes to my beloved parents for their constant support and encouragement and to my wife 'Manju' for her patience and understanding throughout the period of this work.
