ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

While presenting this thesis, I record my sincerest debt of gratitude to Hon'ble Prof. G. Shanker, Professor & Head of the Department of Bio-Chemical Engineering & Food Technology, H.B.T.I., Kanpur, whose painstaking guidance, constant encouragement, inspiring discussions, have enabled me to complete the present work uninterruptedly. I thank him very much for suggesting me this extremely interesting research topic of modern environmental significance.

I am thankful to Dr. A.K. Vashistha, Director, Harcourt Butler Technological Institute, Kanpur for providing me necessary facilities during my research work.

Very special thanks are expressed to Hon'ble Dr. M.S. Saxena, Dr. S.K. Awasthi, Madam Dr. Reeta Kar, Mr. Rajkumar, Dr. V.K. Jain, Dr. Pathak and Dr. Maheshwari, who have rendered instantaneous help during the course of my research work.

The researcher owes a special debt of gratitude to Hon'ble Dr. S.K. Mandal for his help and constant encouragement in her laboratory work. I also thank Dr. S.J. Nagar for his precious assistance.

I fail to express in words my regards for Guruji, reverent Dr. C. Venkobachar and Madam Dr. Leela Iyengar, who have been of immense support. I thank them for their selfless guidance, ever-helping nature, interest and involvement in my work.
I cannot fail to acknowledge the pain and patience of Sri R.N. Srivastava, who rendered excellent and finest typing work.

Sushri Ligy, Anupama, Abha, Arti, Mamta, Bharti and Pooja my companions and colleagues have also contributed a lot in their own ways, and thus deserve my sincerest thanks and appreciation.

Fortunate from my childhood I found myself greatly enriched for having the opportunity to associate with my brother, Sri Arun, a divine soul, who with his selfless helping-hands, uplifted me to this status. I owe to him and thank him personally for his cordial support at every step and involvement in my work.

I avail the opportunity to acknowledge with thanks the active support and cooperation, extended to me by my learned 'Bhabhiji Smt. Asha, and sister Smt. Vandana and Sushri Archana, without whose support the task would have proved a dream.

At last but not the least, I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude and obligation to my reverent parents whose blessings and blissful enthusiasm inculcated in me an inspiration to encounter hardest task with patience and steadfastness, which enabled me to accomplish this task with zeal and spirit in time. This outcome is the result of their ambition.
