ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Firstly, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my research guide Prof. Heremba Bailung, IASST for the continuous support of my Ph.D. research, for his patience, motivation, and immense knowledge. His guidance helped me in all the time of research and writing of this thesis. I am particularly indebted to him for his constant faith in my lab work. I could not have imagined having a better advisor and mentor for my Ph.D. study.

My sincere thanks to Dr. Sumita K Sharma, IASST for sharing her experimental as well as numerical expertise so willingly, and for being dedicated during the work. My research works have been impossible without the aid and support of her.

I sincerely thank Science and Engineering Research Board (SERB), Department of Science and Technology Govt. of India for giving me the opportunity to work as a JRF and SRF under the project entitled “Investigations on rogue wave in multicomponent plasma with negative ions”. I would also like to thank Council for Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR), Human Resource Development Group, Govt. of India for the financial support.

I want to acknowledge visiting scientist Prof. Yoshiharu Nakamura, Japan for his important suggestions and helpful comments on most of the topics in the thesis. I have very fond memories of the time of his visit to IASST.

I am profoundly grateful to Prof. Joyanti Chutia, Emeritus Scientist, IASST for her continuous encouragement and support during Ph.D. I would like to thank Dr. Arup Ratan Pal, Associate Professor, IASST for his fruitful discussions related to my research work.

My heartfelt thanks go to Dr. Nirab C. Adhikary, Technical Officer B, IASST for sharing his experimental technique related to my research work.

My sincere thanks to the Director, Registrar, Faculty members, Administrative staff as well as Supporting staff of IASST, and to the Physics department, Gauhati University for their necessary help and Support.

I would like to thank Mr. Krishna Kanta Swargiary and Mr. Bipul Kumar Das for their technical support in designing and fabricating my experimental set ups.
My special regards to my teachers because of whose teaching at different stages of education has made it possible for me to see this day. Because of their kindness I feel, was able to reach a stage where I could write this thesis.

I want to especially thank Mr. Abhijit Boruah, my lab mate cum friend for life, for his support, guidance, encouragement and selfless help whenever I need.

My heartfelt thanks to my seniors Dr. Amreen, Dr. Tapan, Dr. Dolly, Dr. Aziz and Dr. Bhabesh for their guidance and support. I thank my fellow lab mate Binita for the stimulating discussions, for the sleepless nights we were working together before deadlines, and for all the fun we have had in the last few years. My special thanks to fellow lab mates, Yoshiko, Tonuj, Rakesh, Bidyut, Palash, Ibnul and Kuldeep for always standing by my side and sharing a great relationship as compassionate friends. I will always cherish the warmth shown by them.

Further, I thank all my seniors, friends and juniors at IASST, Satyananda da, Parijat ba, Mahananda da, Kaustav da, Achyut da, Manash da, Bedanta da, Ranjita ba, Garima ba, Sima ba, Ujjal, Bikash, Deepshikha, Santanu, Bablu, Sweety, Gautomi, Hrishikesh for their support and encouragement during these years. I have spent many memorable and amusing moments of my life with them during my research period at IASST.

Also I thank my friends Angana, Tapash, Ashim, Suman, Antara, Ricky, Sourabh, Nur, Shantanu, Chinmoyee, Nilamoni, Chandan, Bhuban, Bhaskar, Pallab, Navanita, Nayanmoni, Archana, Rajib, Prakash, Jagdish, Nayan, Dhruba and many more for their direct or indirect support and encouragement during these years.

And finally by no means least, I am grateful to my entire family members, lovely mother Mrs. Bijaya Mahanta for her trust, care and support in every single step of my life, respected father Mr. Rama Kanta Pathak for encouraging me at every crucial time of my life, my elder brother Mr. Mrinmoy Pathak and younger sister Ms. Dalibha Pathak who have encouraged and supported me along the way.

Thank you all for your part in my journey!!
