The text contains an acknowledgement section expressing gratitude towards various individuals and institutions. It acknowledges God, a supervisor, a principal, a vice chancellor, and several others for their support and guidance. The text is clear and legible, with no need for further processing.
I am very grateful to Sr. Hilda Mathias, the provincial of Madurai Province for allowing me to pursue my research work.

I am pleased to thank Dr. Gerardin Jeyam, the Principal, Dr. Basil Rose, the Secretary, Dr. Sophy, the Controller of Examination, Holy Cross College, (Autonomous) Nagercoil for motivating me and providing me with the necessary ambience to work peacefully.

I wish to thank my community members, whose prayerful support and encouragement have been of really great help in accomplishing this project successfully.

My thanks are due to the Librarians of Fishery College, Tuticorin, Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, Tirunelveli, Centre for Appropriate Technology, Nagercoil, Centre for Development Studies, Thiruvananthapuram, Assistant Director of Fisheries, Nagercoil and KDFSF, Nagercoil.

This study could not have been possible without the valuable input from various stakeholders of fishermen community in Kanyakumari district. They provided me with the necessary information and suggestions and I thank them very sincerely to complete my research work.

I also thank all the well wishers and friends who have directly or indirectly helped me to complete my work successfully.

I profusely thank my Parents, siblings and dear ones for their prayerful and moral support which enabled me to complete my thesis successfully

A special word of thanks to Ms. Rose Catherine, Department of English, Holy Cross College (Autonomous), Nagercoil for the help rendered to me in correcting the manuscript.

Finally, my sincere thanks to Mrs.Viji, for giving a professional touch and for finishing the work in time.

(S.SAHAYA SELVI)