ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset, being the student of this great institution, I bow my head with great reverence in the pious feet of Bharat Ratna Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya Ji, a man of great vision and founder of the Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi, India, for his lifetime sacrifice and efforts in establishing such a seat of learning for the cause of the millions of students like me.

I take great pleasure to express my intense gratitude to my supervisor Dr. O.P. Mishra, Professor and Head, Department of Extension Education, Institute of Agricultural Sciences, Banaras Hindu University (U.P.) for suggesting and planning the present investigation, valuable guidance, helpful criticism and constant encouragement throughout the course of investigation and preparation of manuscript without which this work would not have seen the light of the day.

I owe my sincere thanks to the members of my advisory committee, Dr. Dipak De, Professor, Dr. A.K. Singh, Professor, Department of Extension Education, Dr. H.P. Singh, Professor, Department of Agricultural Economics and Dr. Abhishek Singh, Assistant Professor, Department of Farm Engineering, Institute of Agricultural Sciences, Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi (U.P.) for their critical suggestion and benevolent guidance.

I am highly obliged to Dr. B. Jirli, Associate Professor and Dr. Kalyan Ghadei, Associate Professor, Department of Extension Education, Institute of Agricultural Sciences, Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi (U.P.) for providing the necessary facilities during the investigation.
I extend my indebtedness to Dr. R. Parameswaran, Assistant Librarian, Banaras Hindu University for his guidance, co-operation, supervision and helpful attitude towards me during the period of investigation.

With profound regard in a more personal sense, I owe deepest debts to my parents, Sri Hansraj Meena and Smt. Rampati Devi who taught me the value of wisdom and their persistent inspiration, selfless sacrifice, love, continuous encouragement and blessings gave mental support and have enabled me to be so today.

Words are not enough to express my deep sense of gratitude to my elder brother Ramraj Meena, my younger brother Ramsingh Meena and my younger sister Kavita who were always with me during my ups and downs, whose affection and moral support gave me strength during my course work.

I acknowledge the company of my friends Deepesh Jeph and my colleague Rekha Tamta and Harshita Tiwari my batch mates, Pramod Kumar Prajapati and Mohammad Hashim and my juniors Shani, Ritu Shah, Sarvesh, Pankaj, Manohar and Ramji Lal Meena for their co-operation.

The words are inadequate to express my feelings to my heartfelt and dearest friends for their immense love and affection which always animated me to the face the challenge and very special thanks to Priyanka Meena for her co-operation, continuous motivation for achieving my goal and for which I gained a new life over here.

I feel paucity of word to express my gratefulness and warmest regards to all non-teaching staff members Shri Bipram Chaurasiy, Shri Harisharan Mishra, Shri Anup and Shri Mahendra Ji of the Department of Extension Education, Institute of Agricultural Sciences, Banaras Hindu University for their timely help and co-operation during the course of my study.
I am also expressing my sincere thanks to UGC for providing RGNF throughout the research work.

I would fail in my duty if I do not thank my Lord ‘SHIVA’. There were many times when I called His name for help, comfort and guidance; He was always right at my side. I feel beholden to heartily acknowledge my deep sense of obligations to persons and institutions wherefrom I received a series of harmonious help during the course of present investigation.
