ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At this moment of having completed this work, I want to acknowledge my gratitude to people without whose illuminating guidance and inspiring cooperation this work would not have been possible in the form it is presented here.

With immense pleasure, I express my deep gratitude to my teacher and supervisor Prof. B. P. Singh, Head, Department of Statistics, Banaras Hindu University for his constant encouragement and scholarly guidance. I am also grateful to him for providing me all necessary facilities during my research work as the Head of Department. With a deep sense of gratitude, I pay my humble respect to Prof. K. N. S. Yadava, presently V. C., Awdhesh Pratap Singh University, Rewa, a brilliant Demographer as well as a profound academician, whose invaluable suggestions, critical evaluation, creative ideas and inspiring cooperation throughout the research work enabled me through my diffidence.

I would like to thank Prof. R. C. Yadava for developing study interest in me and also taught me learning the physical interpretation of the concepts rather than mere well stated theories.

My regards are due to Prof. R. D. Singh, and Dr. Sanjeev Kumar for encouraging me regularly. I also express my humble respect and regards to Prof. K. K. Singh, Prof. V. K. Singh, Prof. Umesh Singh, Prof. B. B. Khare, Prof. Sanjay K. Singh, Dr. Rajesh Singh, Dr. Brijesh Pratap Singh and Dr. M. K. Chaudhary for their supporting nature and explicit suggestions at every stage of this study.

University Grant Commission deserves special mention for providing financial support in the form of research fellowship.

My heartfelt thanks are also due to my friends Shweta, Anupama, Saurabh, Jyoti, Priyanka, Prashant and Rijji. They provided constant love and support during the course of this work. I also feel pleasure in recording my thanks to my seniors Dr. Niraj Kumar Singh, and Saurabh Kumar Pandey and My lab-mates Dharmraj Prajapati, Abhishek Bharti.
for their wholehearted support, constant encouragement, companionship and valuable cooperation.

I shall fail in my duty, if I do not thank the non-teaching staffs of my department, who have assisted me during my research work.

My parents, my brother Shri Ram and my elder sisters Richi, Nidhi, younger sisters Ayushi and my sister-in-law (Bhabhi) Shrinkhala provided the love, the help and the patience required for me to keep going and helped me to put this project into its proper perspective. They helped me in ways that are too numerous to mention. I thank them and I dedicate this work to them.
