Acknowledgement

I desire to express, with all humility, my respect and gratitude to my guide Dr. B.P. Patel. Whose contact, encouragement and patient guidance have made it possible for me to present this thesis today.

I express my profound gratitude from the core of heart to my father and mother for their constant inspiration throughout this study.

My thanks go to Dr. Sanjay Shanker, Dhirendra Gupta Sir, Dr R.N. Shukla, Pandey Sir and Yadav Sir for extending to me all the necessary facilities.

Last but not the least, I am thankful to all those persons who have helped in preparing this text directly or indirectly words is not enough to express my deep sense of gratitude.
