ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“Goodness can never be defied and good human beings can never be denied”.

Completion of this doctoral dissertation was possible with the support of several people. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all of them. First of all, to Almighty God; whose grace, unconditional love and blessings accompanied me throughout the study and provided me with the inspiration, strength and courage that I needed to accomplish this thesis.

I would like to express my special appreciation and thanks to my Guide Dr. Prabha K Dasila, Professor & Director, MGM New Bombay College of Nursing, Kamothe, MGIHS, Navi Mumbai Maharashtra. She have been a tremendous mentor for me. I would like to thank her for encouraging my research and for allowing me to grow as an efficient research scientist. This work was possible only because of the unconditional support and guidance provided by her. A person with an amicable and positive disposition, Madam has always made herself available to clarify my doubts despite her busy schedules. I considered it as a great opportunity to do my doctoral programme under her guidance and to learn from her research expertise. I owe a heartfelt gratitude to her for always being there for me and I feel privileged to be part of this journey.

My special words of thanks should also go to my research Co Guide Dr. (Mrs) SriPriya Gopalkrishnan, Principal and Professor, Sadhu Vaswani College of Nursing, Pune for the continuous support for my Ph.D study and research, for her patience, motivation, enthusiasm, and immense knowledge. Her guidance helped me through the time of the research and writing of this thesis. I could not have imagined having a better advisor and mentor for my Ph.D study.
A very special gratitude goes all out to Dr Basant Ahuja, Managing Trustee, SVM and Dr. C H Gidwani, Director Academics, Sadhu Vaswani Mission’s Medical complex for providing constant support and help.

I extend my gratitude to all the committee members of MGMIHS for their valuable suggestions and timely support from the inception till the completion and submission of the thesis.

I would like to thank all the experts in the field of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Community for their valuable suggestions and for validating the data collection instrument of this study.

I express my sincere gratitude to Prof. Pradip Borle, Biostatistician for the help rendered in analyzing the data involved in the study. I also express my gratitude to Dr. Mahinder Singh Setia and Dr Rita Abbi for their valuable guidance and support in the statistical analysis.

I extend my gratitude to Dr Suhas Kore, THO Alibag for guiding us during clinical permission and helping with secondary data collection. I am also grateful to Dr Suryawanshi, DHO Alibag who gave me permission to work. I also extend my gratitude and sincere thanks to all the Medical officer’s of Sub District hospital, Taluka Hospital and Primary health centre of Raigad district for their support, suggestions and guidance throughout the study.

I also extend my sincere gratitude to all the Health care Personnel, who were a part of this project, without whose participation and cooperation it would not have been possible to complete the study.

My special regards to my teacher Mrs Manonmani Venkat, because of whose teaching at different stages of education and life has made it possible for me to see this day. Because of her kindness I feel, was able to reach a stage where I could write this thesis.

I also would like to express my love and heartfelt gratitude to my dear friend and co worker, Mrs. Samruddhi Bhakare, for her constant support, encouragement, motivation and suggestions towards completing this study.
My colleagues, Ms Madhavi, Ms Supriya, Mrs Namita and Mrs Ujjwala who have all extended their support in a very special way. I gained a lot of knowledge from them, through their personal and scholarly interactions, their suggestions at various points of my research programme.

I would like to express sincere gratitude to my parents, who helped and encouraged me at every stage of my life, and constantly supported in every decision. A special thanks to my sisters for their love and affection.

I owe my deepest gratitude towards my better half for his eternal support and understanding of my goals and aspirations. His infallible love and support has always been my strength. His sacrifice and patience throughout my life will remain my inspiration. Without his help, It would not have been able to complete. I am also thankful to my daughter Ramani, and son Manav for supporting, encouraging and believing in me and the understanding at their tiny age.

No research is possible without the Library, the centre of learning resources. I take this time to express my gratitude to all the library staff for their services. MGM College of nursing librarian, MGM university librarian, and Sadhu Vaswani College of nursing have been very helpful.

I gratefully acknowledge Sadhu Vaswani Mission for providing me financial support and sponsoring me to carry out my research.
