No goal can be achieved without inspiration and blessings and supports, hence the expression of gratitude is necessary to all such sources that made an achievement complete. In this spirit, first of all, I sincerely owe immeasurable gratitude and profound reverence to my esteemed supervisor, Dr. Sonu Shiva, for those sessions of detailed discussions, invaluable suggestions, constructive criticism followed by helpful sourcing and ever-stimulating inspiration. This work would not have been possible without her guidance.

I take privilege to express my heartily thankfulness to the members of the Department of English-Dr. Rajni Sharma, Dr. Kirandeep, Dr. Vibha Tiwari and Dr. Pooja Rawal for their suggestions and guidance full of high expertise. My thanks are also due to the Principal of Govt. Dungar College, Bikaner and Principal of Ch. Ballu Ram Godara Govt. Girls College, Sri Ganganagar for allowing me to access to the resources.

I express my great obligation to my late parents-Mr. Lekh Raj Arora and Mrs. Shanti Devi who encouraged me to take an initiation of this research work while alive, and with whose heavenly blessings, I could furnish this work.

I wish to record hereby my sincere thanks to my husband--Mr. Sanjay Chugh, who helped me a lot by devoting his precious time in typing the study material.

I would like to extend my gratitude to Dr. Babita kajal, Dr. Navneet Verma, Mrs. Meenu Tanwar, Dr. Madhu Verma, Dr. Mani Mala Sharma and many others for their encouragement, help and support they have given me in this journey.

And above all I bow my head before God, the Almighty for blessing me with patience, strength and the company of such people to overcome all the difficulties in the completion of this endeavour.
